Keith,
I honestly can't begin to say how much I'll miss you.
No matter how much I pretend I can't stand you sometimes, you know I just kidding around. If I didn't love you, I wouldn't kid around. Keith, Keith, I'm going to miss you because you've made every day at West Mesa a joy.
I love you Keith,

Reaching Out

A hand is reaching out to touch another. The other is reaching back. Perhaps contact will be made, perhaps not. What matters most is an effort is being made. When an effort is made, success is gained more often than not.

We are making these efforts. These efforts that involve "reaching out."

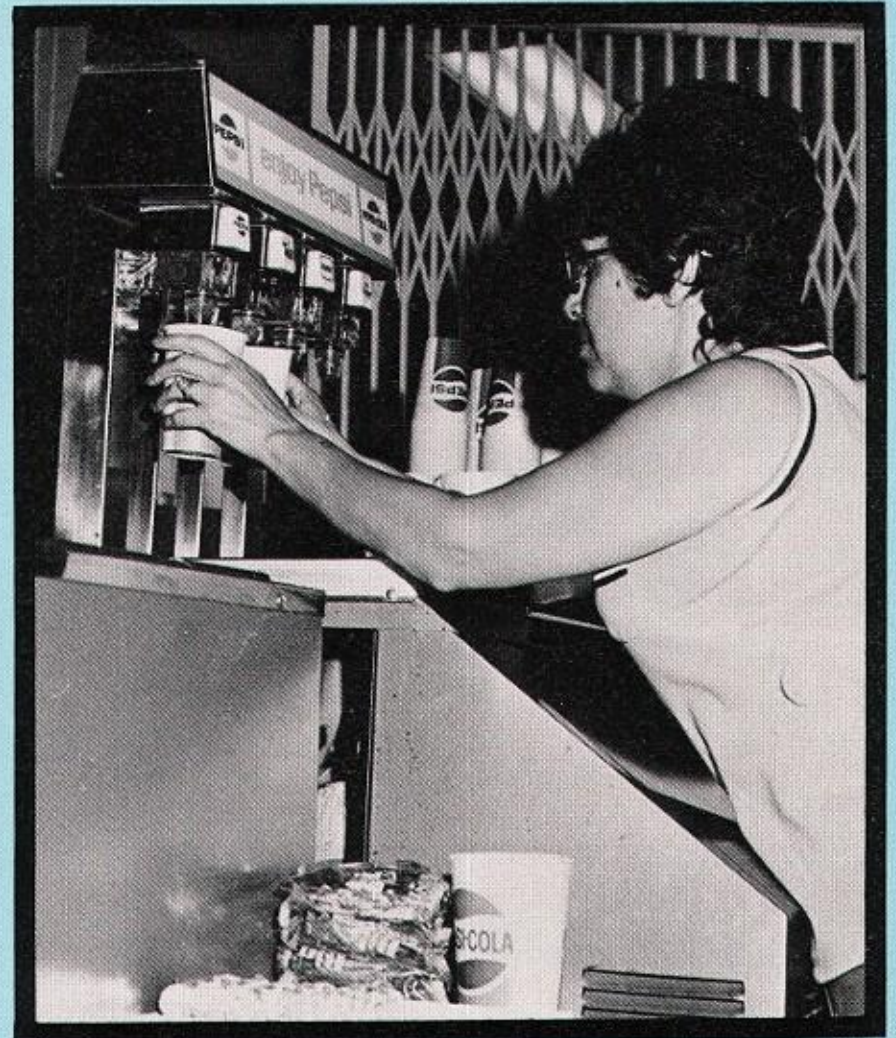

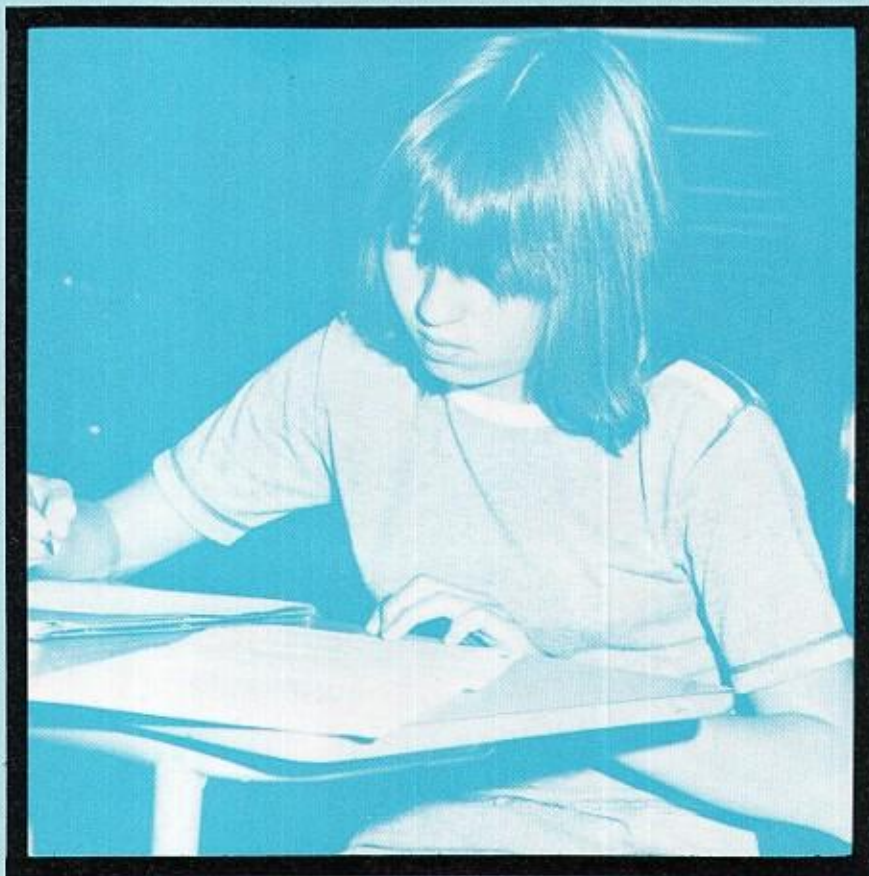

Keith,
We have only been here together for two years I just want to say that we have sure had
a lot of fun + bad
times together and
I sure am glad we
had them together —

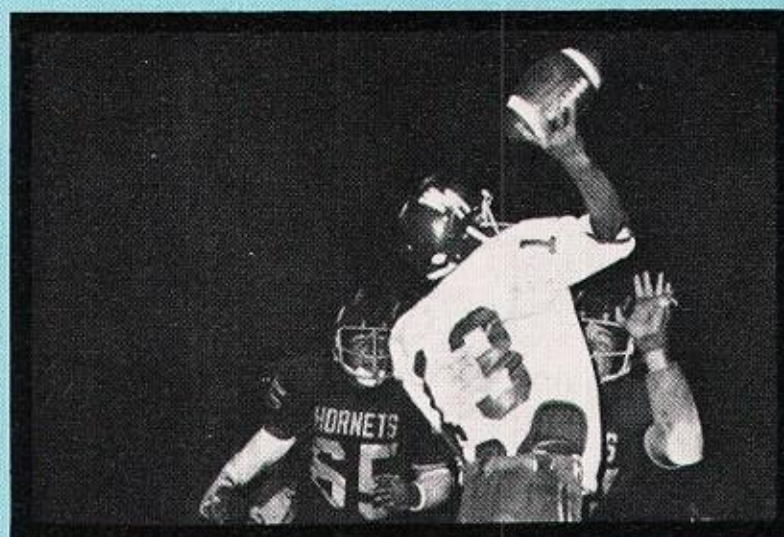

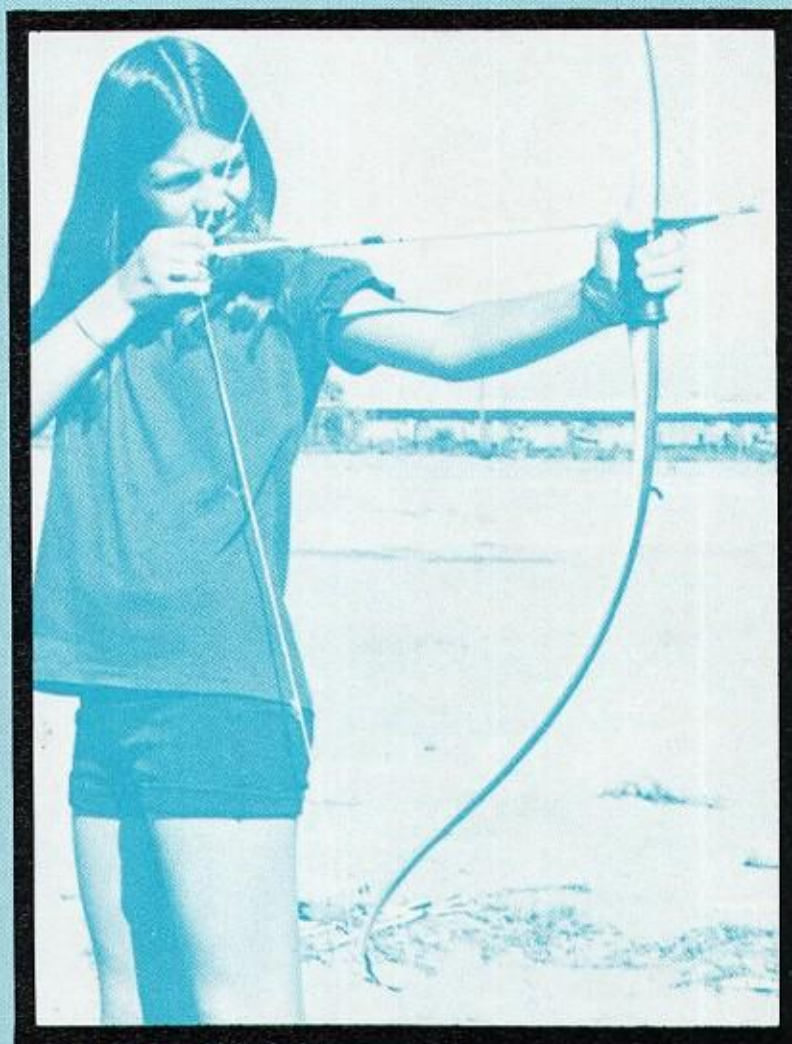

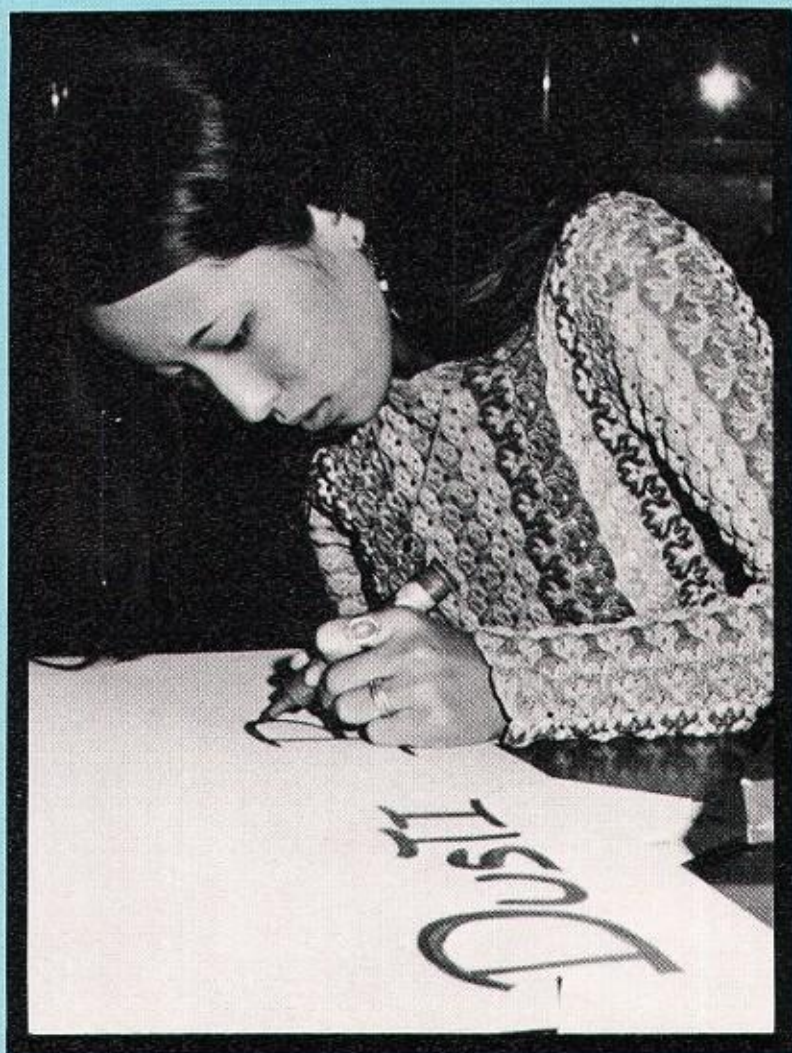

We are reaching out for knowledge,
for in that knowledge rests our future.

I have learned &

with peace

We are reaching out •
for true lasting friendship,
for in this exists comfort
when we need it.

We are reaching out
for the truth,

for
with truth we shape our lives.

We are reaching out for happiness,
for it is an inherent part of survival.

We are reaching out for life.
It is reaching out for us.
It will soon envelope us.

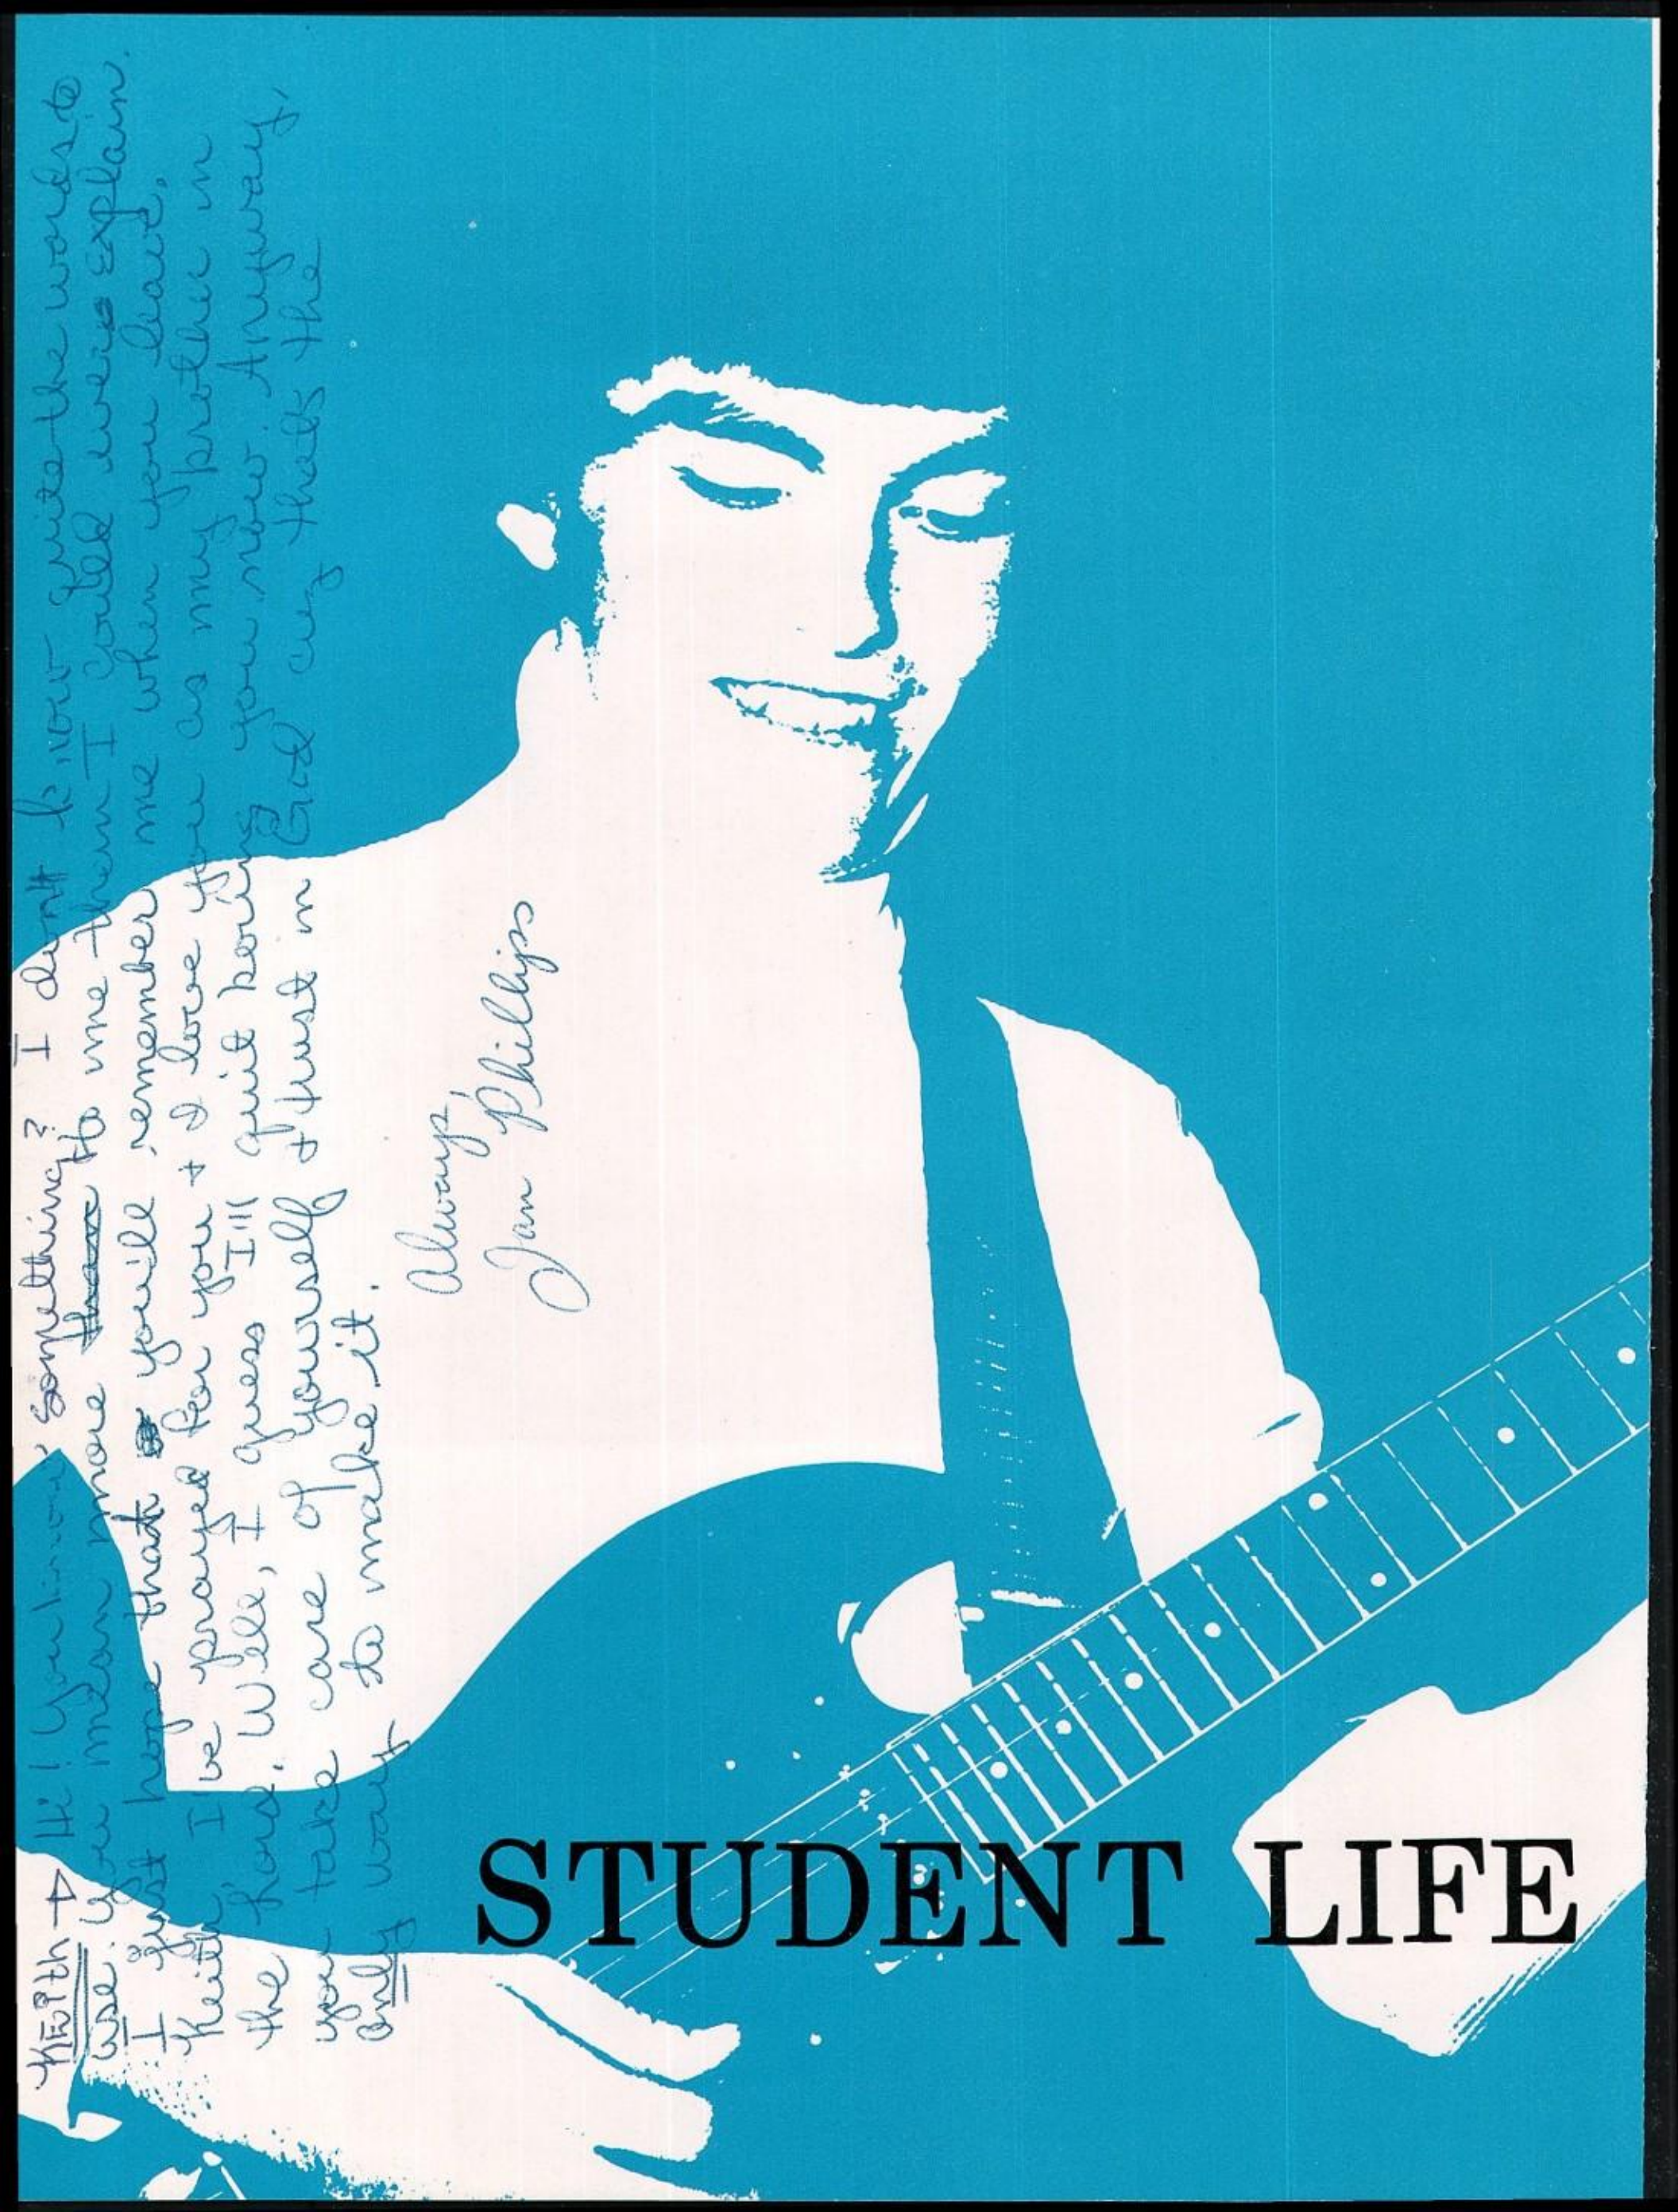

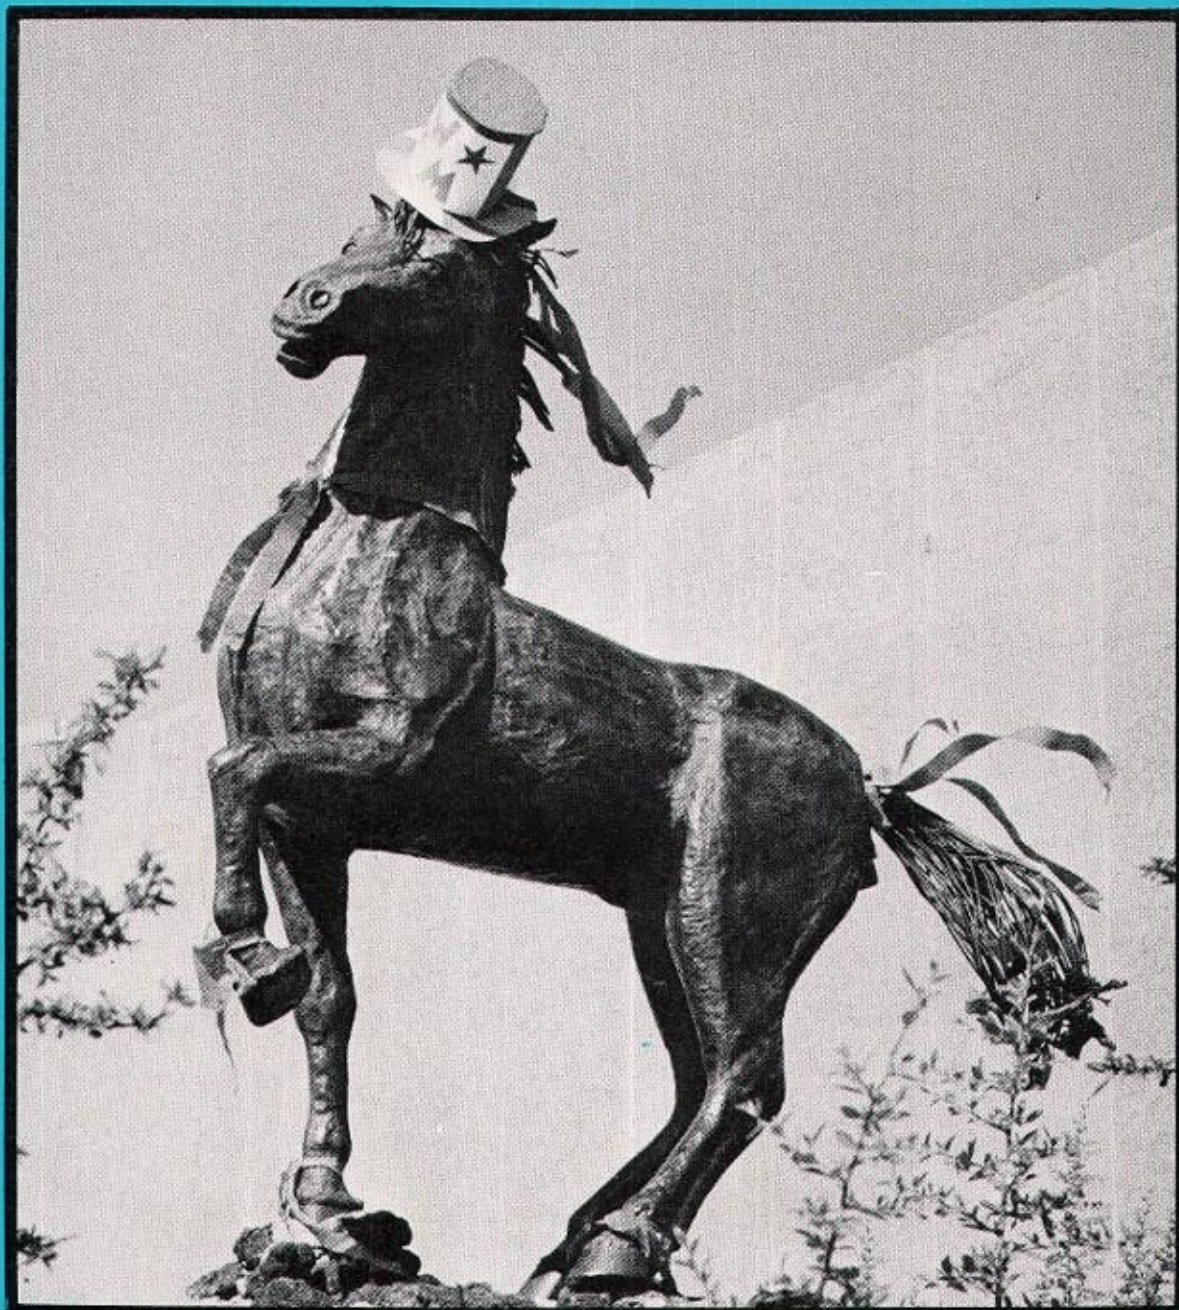

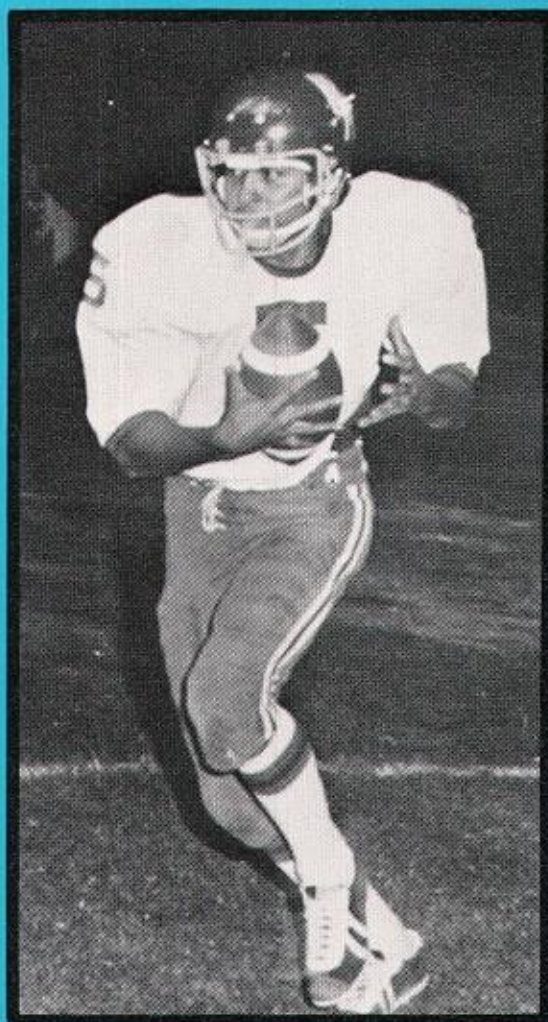

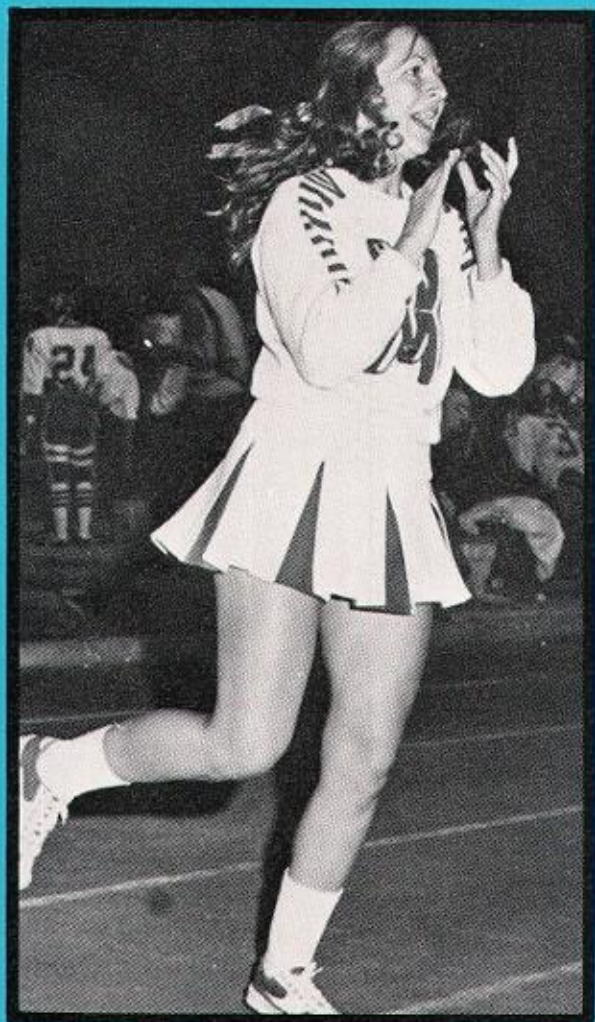

Keith -
use

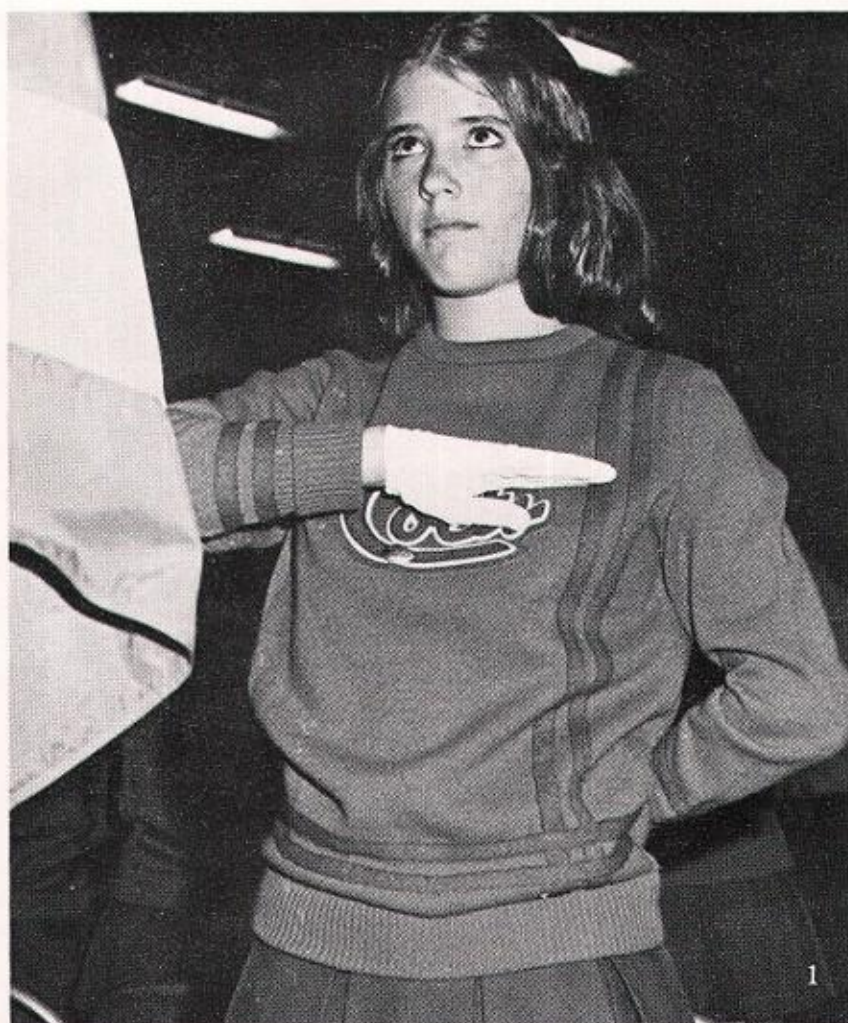

Hi! You know something? I don't know quite the words to use. You mean more ~~than~~ to me than I could ever explain.
I just hope that you'll remember me when you leave.
Keith, I've prayed for you + I love you as my brother in the Lord. Well, I guess I'll quit boring you now. Anyway, you take care of yourself + trust in God cuz that's the only way to make it.

Always,
Jan Phillips

STUDENT LIFE

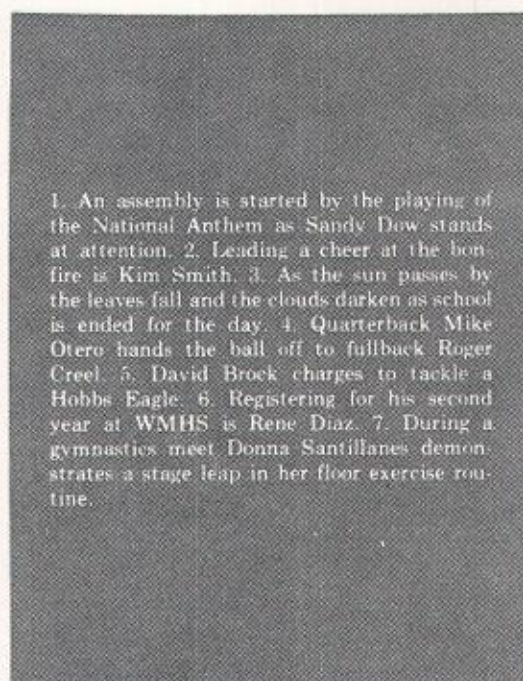

Anything that moves usually starts slowly, speeds up, then slows down and stops. Somebody seems to have forgotten to tell WM students about this procedure. The year began with a typhoon of activities and it didn't slow down at all.

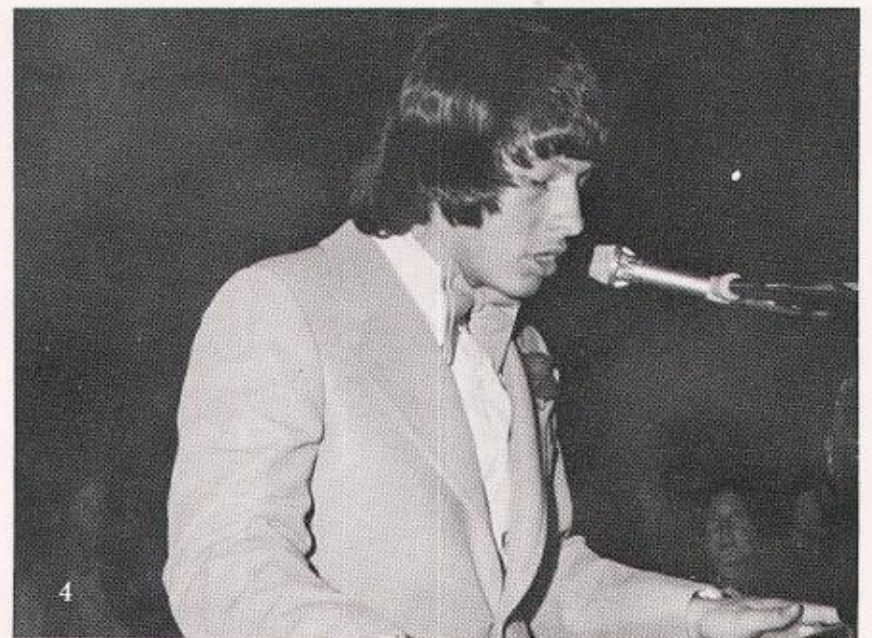

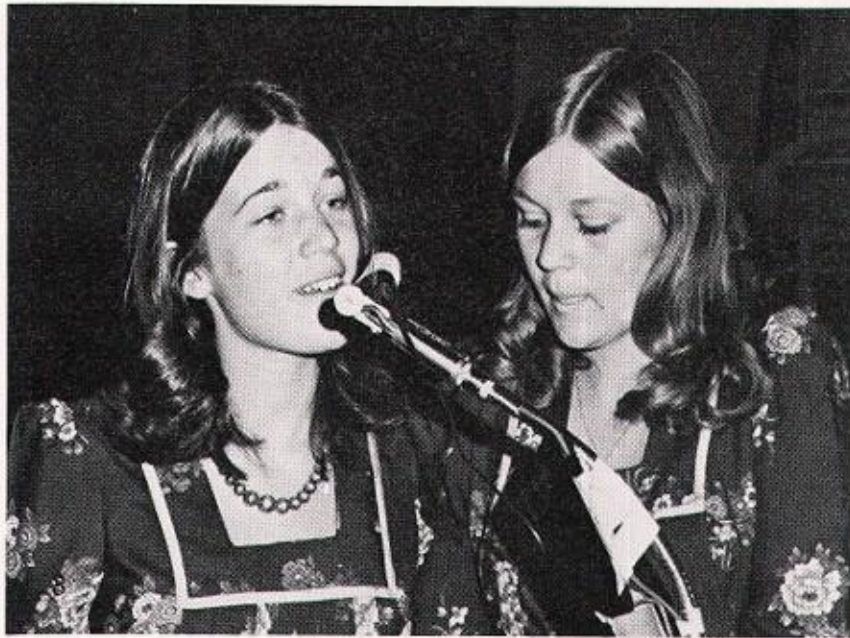

The typhoon began with 3,833 students registering for classes. Now, that's no small number, even after it breaks up into even smaller groups all wanting to make money. This fall we ate, among other unmentionable items, candy apples, assorted suckers, pop-tarts, and candy bars. We even toasted an Eagle at a bonfire.

We ordered garbage cans and glitter plaques, cheered our football team to a District AAAA title and the cross country team to second district.

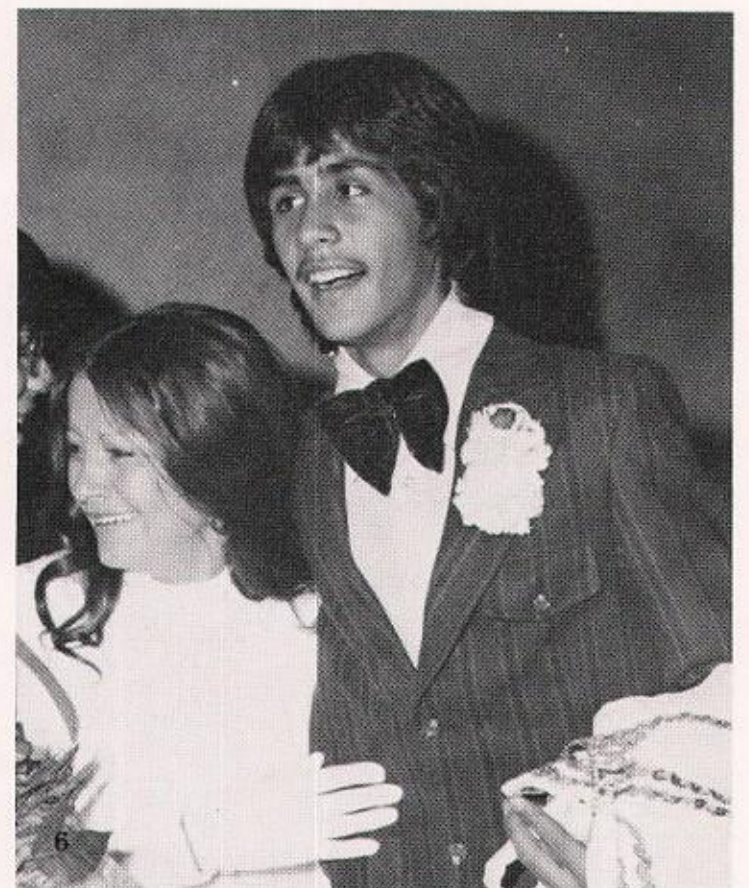

Freshmen and sophomores elected class officers, juniors ordered and received class rings, and seniors sponsored a very successful dance.

No, it certainly wasn't a slow fall, after all.

Mustang Day 1973-74

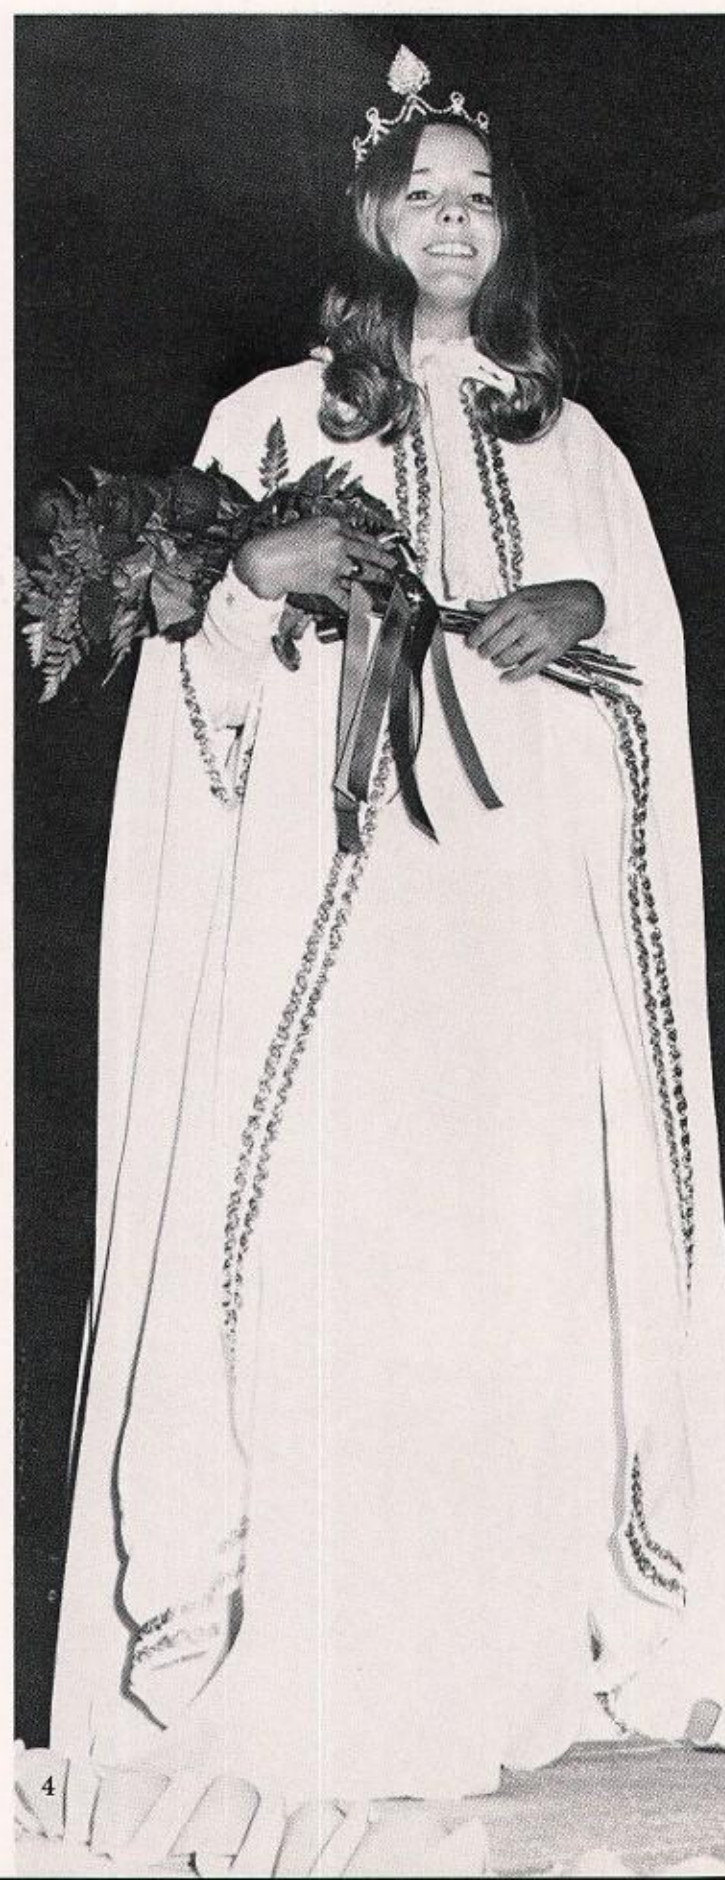

1. Lady Karen Vasques gets last minute touches by Kookie Alde-rete. 2. Awaiting the assembly is last year's queen Diane Gurule. 3.
Mistresses of ceremony are Kate

Ladies Karen Vasques, Helen Peterson, Cathy Santillanes, Vanessa Whitaker, Shirley Ellis, Shelley Casselberry, Christi Ray, and Cathy Roemer. Second Princess Diane Lucero. First Princess Mary Baca, Queen Kim Easley.

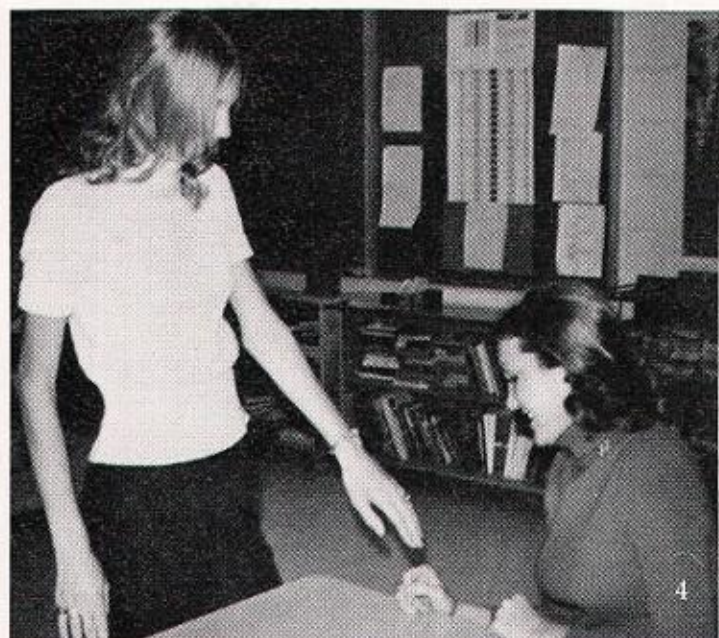

1,2. Presenting gifts to Queen Kim Easley are Philip Banks and Larry Romero. 3. Being escorted to her chair by Ronnie Lowe is Lady Vanessa Whitaker. 4. Taking her walk after being crowned queen is Kim Easley. 5. West Mesa students dance to the music of Mudsa. 6. During half-time Queen Kim takes a drive around the stadium. 7. Princesses Diane and Mary smile as they are driven around the stadium by K.C. Klenck.

1. Mustangs watch excitedly as they chant, 'Burn, Eagles, Burn'. 2. Rodger Creel and Jimmy Carrillo block for David Brock as he tries to gain yardage as the mighty Mustangs are stopped by the Hobbs Eagles. 3. Members of the Drum and Bugle, and Drill Team, Lee-roy Esquibel, Jeff Saavedra, and Claude Blacksher, take part in NJROTC Family Night Dinner. 4. Junior Mary Shealy shows off her class ring to Kim Hedrick. 5. Fillie Cyndi Mills performs for halftime entertainment during WM vs. Hobbs game. 6. At the El Dorado Invitational Danny Herrera comes around the home stretch.

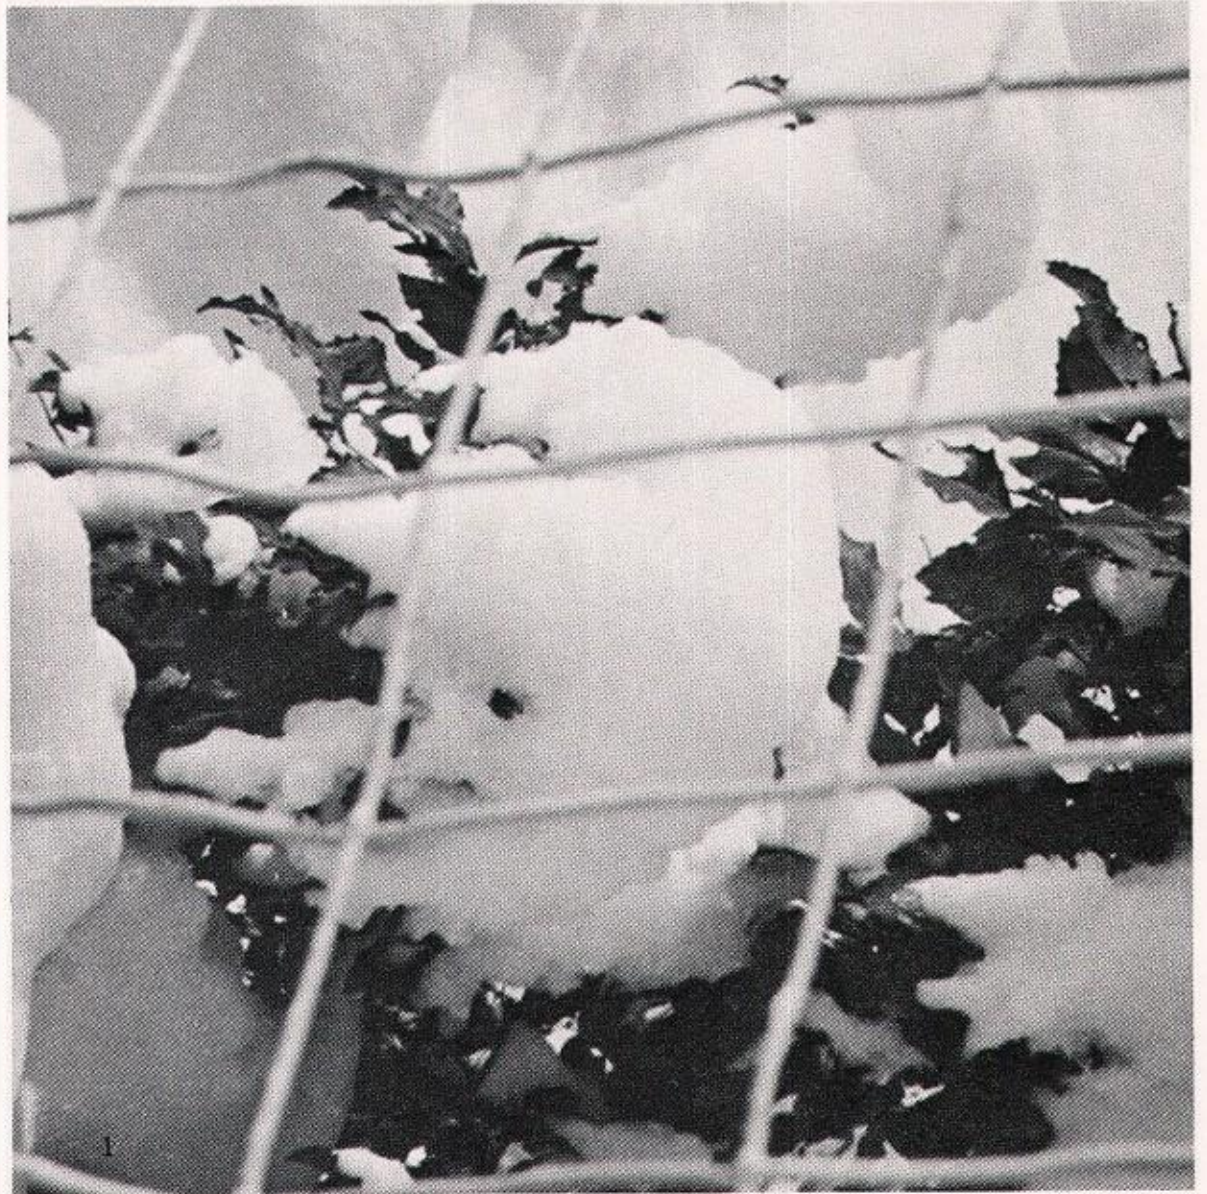

Winter snow highlights the Christmas season

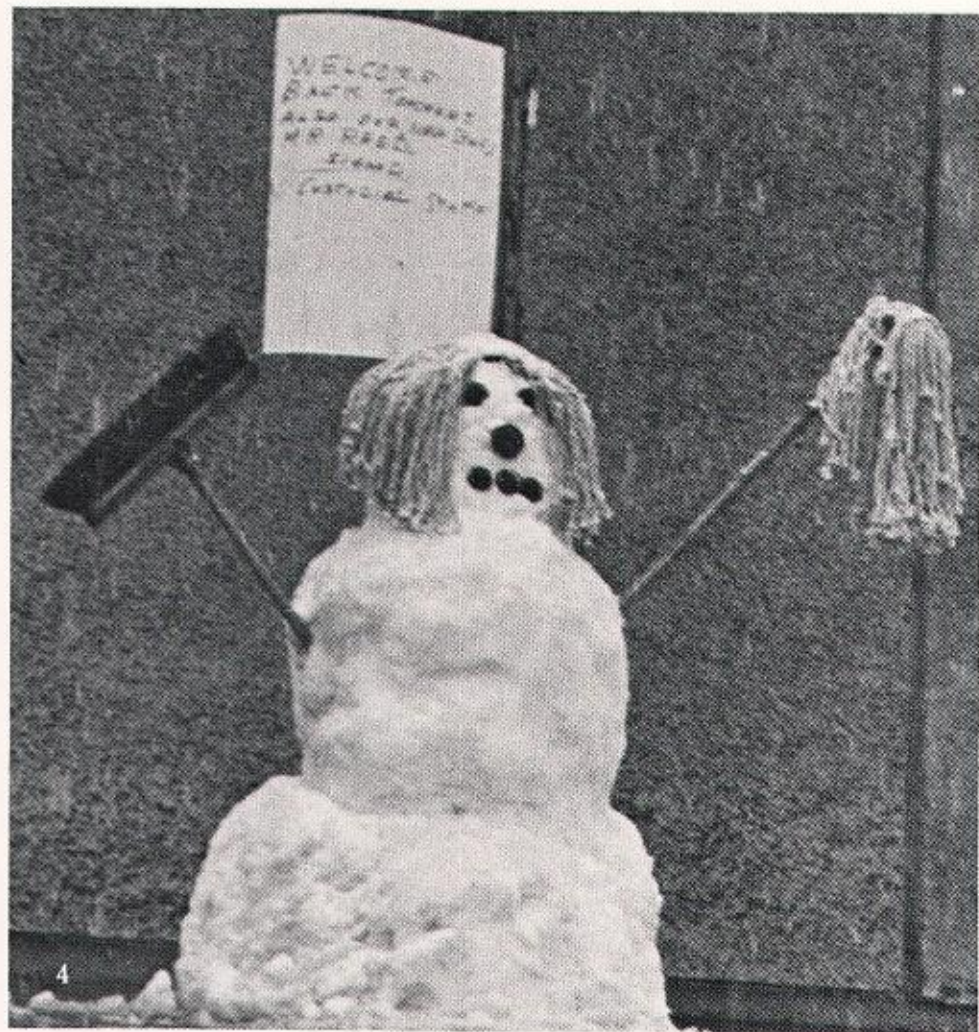

The passing of time and winter changed the experiences of fall into memories. The first signs of 'graduation fever' became evident among seniors when they ordered their announcements.

Holiday decorations, sales and programs highlighted the weeks before Christmas. The first heavy snow came at the end of vacation giving all APS students an extra four days vacation.

Attendance at basketball games and wrestling matches dominated January. As they went to school in the dark because of daylight savings time, students attending all schools realized what WM 11th and 12th graders have had to do for two years.

1. Winter scene is by Scott Maltz. 2. West Mesa's DECA set up a stand across from the school grounds to help raise money for special projects. 3. Soloist in the Christmas production 'The Gift of the Magi' is Martina Garcia. 4. Custodian staff prepare a snowman to welcome the teachers and new principal, Mr. Reid, back from the Christmas vacation. 5. The highlight of the annual Teachers' Banquet is comedian Phil Rodriguez, and Pearl Lindstrom portray the family. 7. It is a blizzard during the afternoon session as two sophomores sit and enjoy the snow. 8. Christmas decorations don't seem to impress Tony Gross. 9. "Wow, it's a toy from Santa," says Kurt Pasnewski.

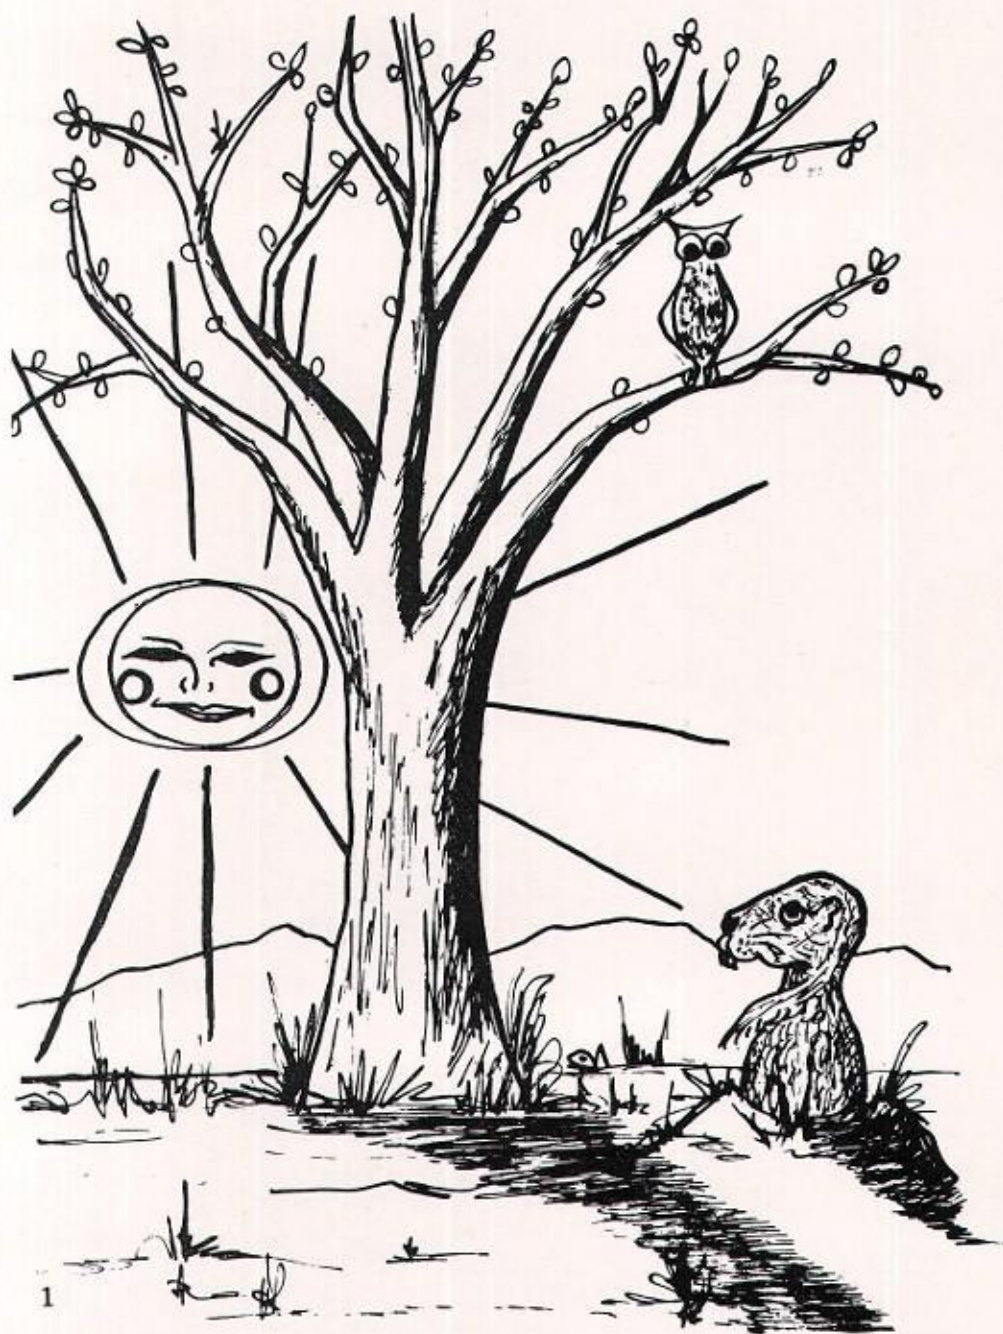

1. Entertaining the teachers at the banquet is Julie Chernobieff. 2. Hillbillies Beth and Mary Schmitt sing for Teachers Banquet. 3. Pocho Eddie Martinez hunts for the NBC peacock. 4. Teachers were entertained by Laura Riggs as she did a dramatic interpretation of "The House of the Blue Leaves." 5. Chorus gets together to sing as Mrs. Casselberry jins in.

Graduation, Jr.-Sr. Prom Complete Year

The change from winter to spring saw new activities for many Mustangs and brought the end of the school year even closer.

The basketball and wrestling seasons ended in March and baseball, tennis, and golf began.

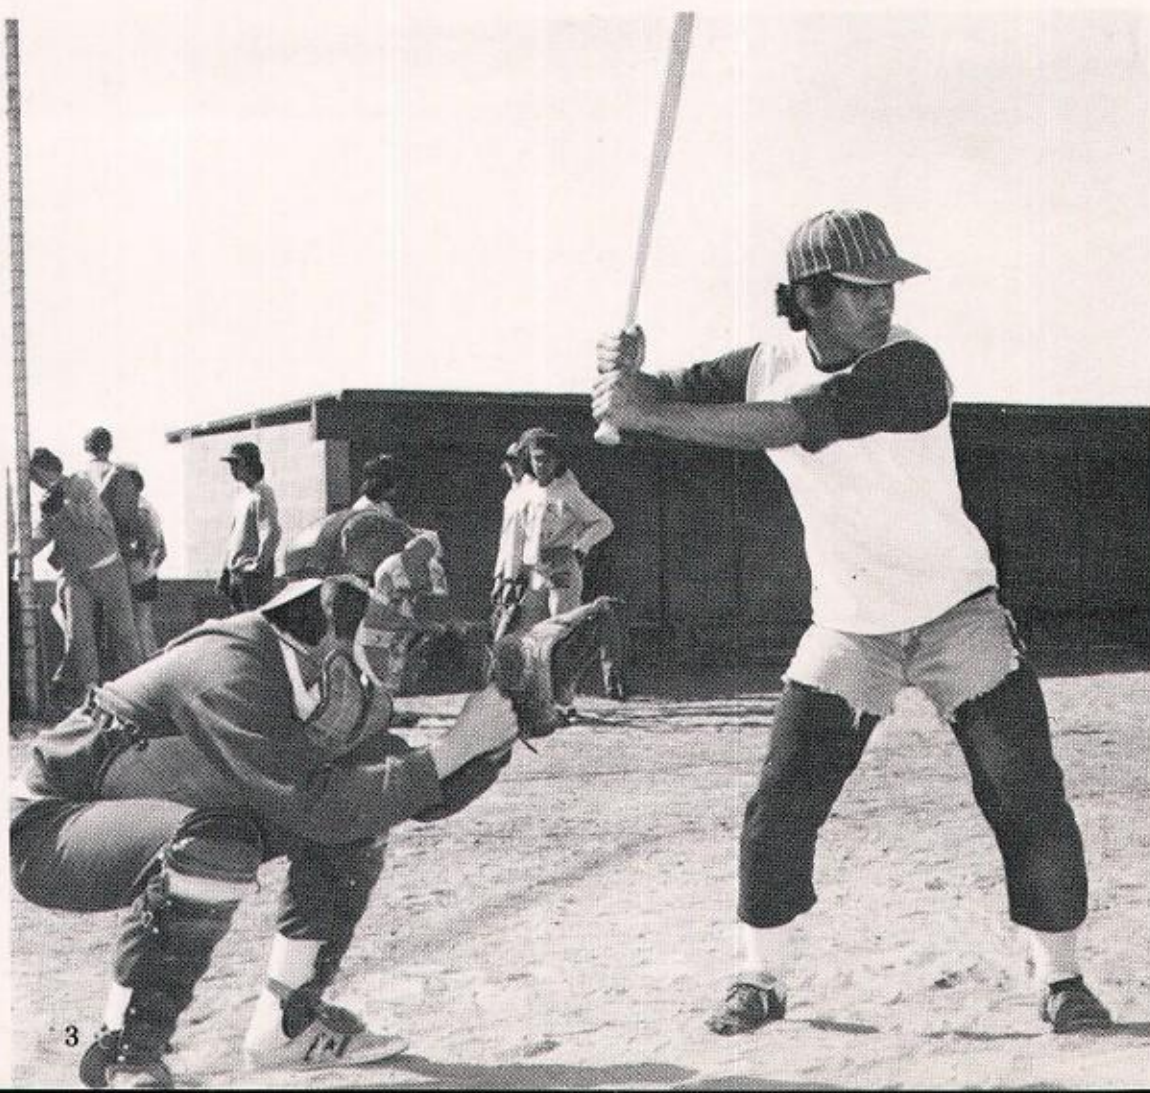

Faculty Follies, March 14, was sponsored by the freshman class to raise money. Music and Drama departments had their annual Variety show, March 14-16.

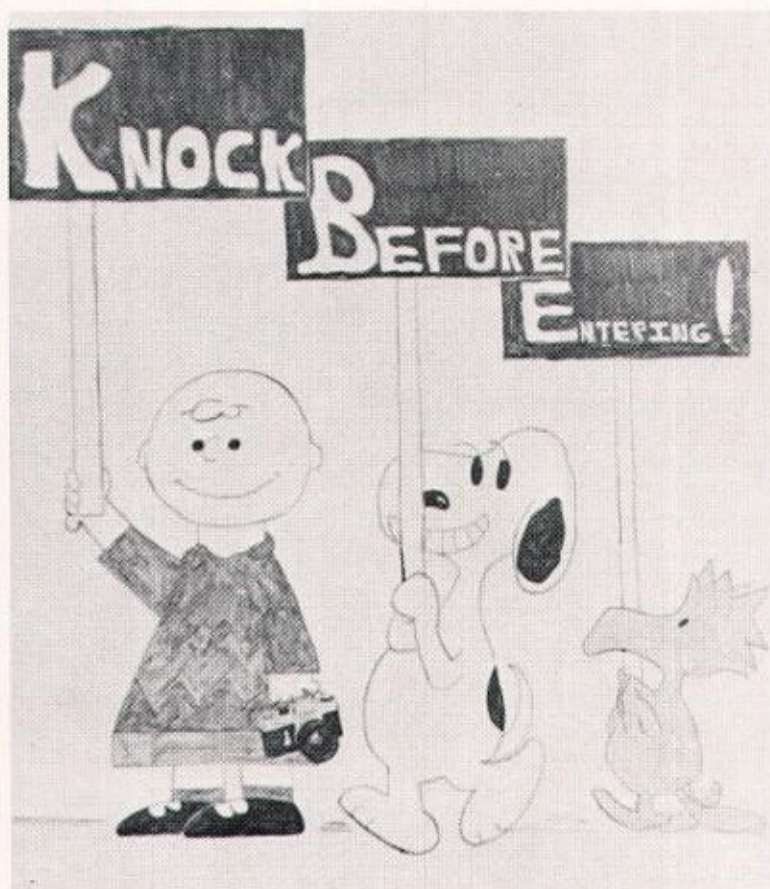

April 19-28 saw students leave for the trip to Mexico.

"The Way We Were" set the atmosphere for the Junior-Senior Prom, May 11.

Yearbook staffers prepared the first assembly to present the El Chicote to the faculty and student body.

The year came to an end with the traditional awards assembly and the graduation ceremony held at the University Arena. Approximately 630 seniors participated in the ceremonies, June 5.

1. Spring at last!. Art work by Ken Romero. 2. Modeling some spring fashions are Annabel Taylor and Theresa Pacheco. 3. Spring brings baseball to the Mustang Jocks. 4. '21½,' Mr. Collier seems to say as he measures Karen Vasques for her cap and gown. 5. Ole! Mrs. Gabaldon, Mrs. Allred, Mrs. Rigler, Mrs. Martinez, and Mrs. Coffee practice for the Faculty Follies. 6. As spring comes around, Liz Griego is busy selling Pepsi during the hot afternoons. 7. Lying down for their afternoon siesta before practice is the 'hay seed' rock group.

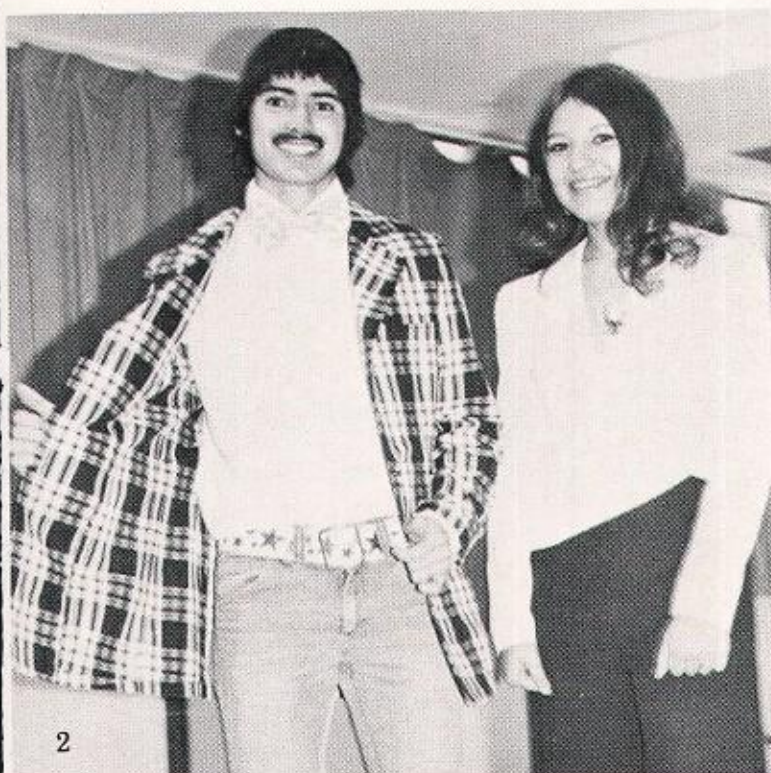

1. A sneak preview of the patio just before the invasion of students for afternoon break. 2. A Navy recruiter arouses the interest of students, Henry Harrison and Monique VanEssen. 3. English teachers Mrs. Elaine Alarid, Ms. Linda Lefton, and Mrs. Bonnie Geer display their talents during practice for the 'Faculty Follies.'

1. Gina, Cindy and Betty practice their can-can routine for the variety show, 'Cabaret.' 2. Helping model clothes for the Simplicity Style Show are Eddie Martinez and Mary Lopez. 3. Making sure that the new West Mesa van is in tip-top shape are Donna Brown, Lois Sonntag, James Sanchez and George Dexter. 4. Beautiful artwork by Mike Gallegos brightens up the gym.

Mr. Evans honored at banquet

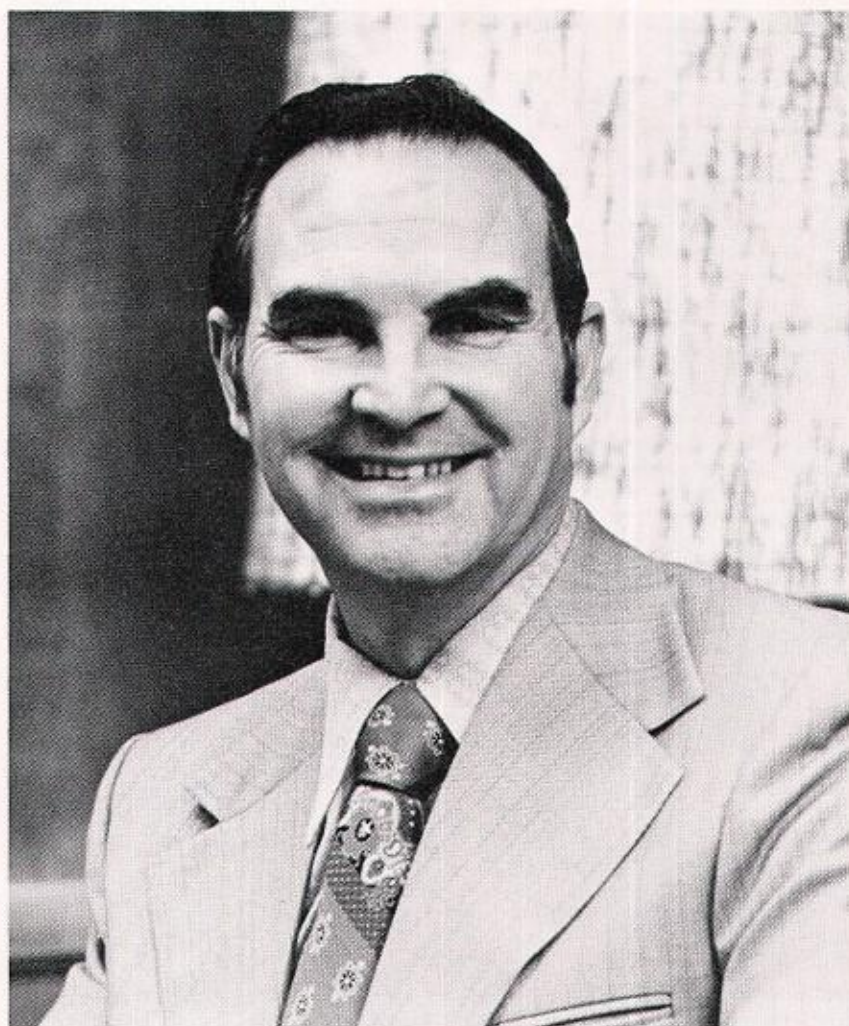

1. As he gives the Student Council farewell gift Lawrence Bernabo's usual wit makes Mr. Evans laugh. 2. Surprised, stunned, unhappy! 3. All smiles again. 4. Donna Brown and Julie Bermudez offer Mr. Evans their doll. 5. Is it Mr. Evans' turn to do his act? 6. 'Seven little girls' in the back seat with Buddy Bob while Eddie Martinez and Phillip Rodriguez act as drivers. 7. Staff members who have been at West Mesa since the school opened are Mr. Davis, Miss Bourne, Mr. Christain, Mrs. Demaret, Mrs. Daub, Mr. Mora, Mrs. Erteza, Mr. Beidler, Mr. Simons, Mr. Knight, Mrs. Klassen, Mr. Bessom, Mr. Juarez and Mr. Burckley. 8. Mr. Evans pleads, 'Please don't take me to that new school!' 9. Mr. Evans proudly shows the picture given to him by the faculty. 10. Saying adios and buena surete, Mr. Evans leaves West Mesa to Mr. Reid, the new principal. 11. On his last day as principal, NJROTC 'pipes' Mr. Evans over the side. 12. Are they sneaking back for seconds?

Experienced superintendents work for APS

The administrative staff of Albuquerque Public Schools was headed by Superintendent Mr. Ernest Stapleton. Mr. Stan Rarick, asst. area superintendent, and Mr. Robert Montoya, north area superintendent, were more directly responsible for West Mesa.

All these men have been in office for at least two and a half years and have been making decisions that are necessary when new schools are being built. They also must make suggestions for allocations of city, state and federal funds.

Administrators are responsible to the Board of Education whose job it is to resolve all difficulties and make all final decisions.

Mr. Ernest Stapleton

Mr. Robert Montoya

Board of Education members are Mr. Dan McKinnon, Mrs. Maureen Luna, Mr. Henry Willis, Mr. Ted Martinez and Mr. Joseph Zanotti.

Principals join to make a harmonious WM

Mr. Robert Evans

Mr. William Reid

At the end of the first semester, former principal, Mr. Robert Evans, ended seven and one half years as the first principal of West Mesa. He then took over the new north area school.

Mr William Reid, assistant principal from Del Norte, became West Mesa's new head man. With the help of his second semester vice principals, he guided the students through the rest of the year. Mrs. Mildred Faris was responsible for curriculum and faculty. Mr. John Barefoot supervised the 11th and 12th grades, Mr. Armando Velasquez was in charge of the 10th grade, and Mr. Abel McBride for the 9th grade.

Counselors

They lend a helping hand to all

During this year, counselors have helped students in many ways, registering them, giving them their ACT test results and starting a Career program. Each week they had somebody representing a career or vocational school or one of the Armed Forces in A foyer to inform students about their various fields.

HEALTH, ACTIVITIES, MEDIA CENTER

The primary objective of the nurse this year was to assist students to make sensible decisions about their own health. A full time health aide assisted with records and first aid.

Duties of the librarians were to coordinate the Media Center, work with students and to order new books.

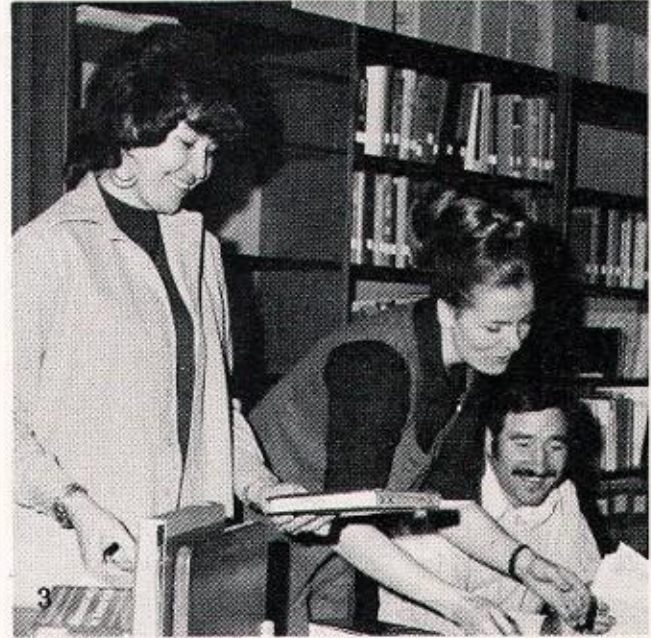

Mr Collier had charge of Student Council and many extra-curricular activities.

Many schools in the U.S. teach "just plain English." At WM the English Department strives to teach much, much more to the students. Of course, the basics are still taught, College Grammar is a course that teaches just the basics, but many of the other courses try to reach beyond that and show that English means not only prepositional phrases but also the thoughts in the author's mind as he is writing a book, or how an image is created through the use of words.

There weren't many changes in the English Department this year. A half a dozen new teachers joined the staff, and two new classes, Chicano Lit. and Bible Lit., were added.

Junior and Senior Humanities were limited to only one period, and the credit earned could be for either English or history.

Creative writing classes again published the "Prism" with the help of Mrs. Jane Hipsher, one of the new teachers, and Speech II and III classes enjoyed the novelty of independent study.

On the whole, it was felt that the Reading Lab was one of the more successful aspects of the department.

The history department has a reputation for different and interesting classes. The Russian history class made a movie about the social process of Russia. This was one of the more unusual acts of the year. The same class also had to plan a trip to the Soviet Union.

In addition to those special tasks, some of the classes had food days which featured different foods from the countries which were being studied. Also the history classes read many books including A Day in the Life of Ivan Denisovich, Good Earth, Exodus, and Little Big Man.

Some films that were viewed were "The Inn of the Sixth Happiness" and "The Fixer." The anthropology classes had some excavation expeditions. One main event of the historical year was a visit by Senator Pete Dominici.

1. Is that the teacher's 'map' being drawn? 2. A small moment of peace and relaxation is enjoyed in the Social Studies office by Mr. Rodriguez. 3. Class participation is always encouraged as can be seen by Mrs. Bachechi and Paulette Ballengee during class session. 4. Map explanations are always helpful. 5. During a visit to the school, Senator Pete Dominici not only talked with students but also with assistant principals, Mr. M. McBride and Mrs. M. Faris.

Business Education aims to prepare students properly for jobs after graduation through the learning and usage of shorthand, typing, recordkeeping, filing, data processing, and career awareness. The graduating students are better equipped to find well-paying employment and to lead comfortable lives. The teachers of the department know the importance of learning these subjects well, and they try to impress that thought upon their students.

1. Mr. Joe Torres takes a break for a snack.

Students receive more individual help

Several teachers in the Mathematics Department developed an individualized approach to teaching Basic Mathematics. The aim of this program was to enable each student to progress at his own rate. These teachers were assisted by several eleventh and twelfth graders who served as tutors.

Computer math students were aided by the addition of a teletype connected to the University of New Mexico computer. This meant that students had access to the computer during their free time in the afternoon rather than having to use the TVI computer before school and on Saturdays as was done in previous years.

Mr. Octaviano Valdez

Mr. Paul Volchansky

1. Mr. Schenk interrupts math office aide, Diane Chavez, for a coffee break. 2. With one more calculation to go, Marc Valdez, completes his math assignment. 3. Basic Math student, Bernadette Trujillo, does some catching up before class begins. 4. Miss Ellis gets rid of the evidence. Did cheerleaders spill paint as they were making posters? 5. Because she wishes for a good test grade, Joan Montoya decides to spend the time cramming.

Since last year was a year for expansion in the Science Department, this year was committed to steadying it down a bit. No new classes were added, and a few of the old ones were cut. The photography room was remodeled, sealing off the windows and one whole wall, making it practically light-proof for the five photography classes.

Enthusiasm of the students created enough people for two Biology II classes, but still only one was offered.

Many of the semester courses had a remarkable turnout. Among them were Herpetology, Life through the Microscope, and Weather and Air.

Vocational Education offered a variety of courses for those interested in working with their hands and minds. Classes available included basic electricity, welding, metals, drafting, woods and health careers, all full year courses. The basics of each field were taught and after mastering these, the students began making and fixing things themselves. The skills acquired were immediately applicable to the world outside of school.

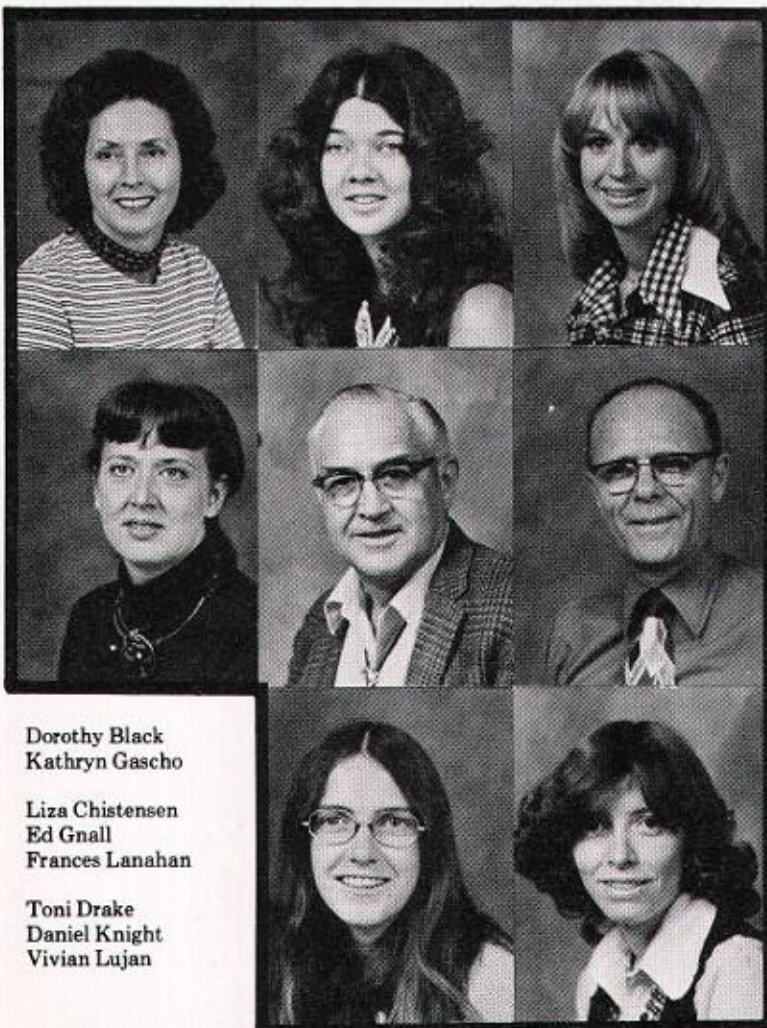

Art is . . . expression of feeling.

As usual the art classes were in great demand. This year West Mesa had a large art department, but it still couldn't keep up with the enthusiastic demand for art courses. In addition to the regular art forms for first to fourth year students, some teachers emphasized the making of such things as pinatas and ojos.

The unique part of all was to have Crafts III and IV participants do their own thing, especially make their own silver and turquoise jewelry. All equipment was on hand but supplies were short at times,

Students used these skills and created many beautiful objects such as rings, bracelets, and chokers. Regular art classes were something else, too, because if you ever stippled or cross-hatched your artistic intelligence is a cut above the average.

Music is the most beautiful sound a man's ear can hear.

Concert Choir made beautiful music this year—in Pueblo, Colorado, at a festival, at Christmas concerts, at the district festival, and, of course, daily in C-42.

The band also went to festivals and played during assemblies and halftime at games. Mr. Christian worked hard and made the students work hard, and the result was a very good band.

Techniques practical for real life

Home Economics Department offered five different courses to enable students to experience different which they would face in the future.

Foods I and II class taught students to cook a wide variety of different foods from foreign countries.

Interior Design provided experience in planning, organizing and decorating a dream home. The emphasis shown in decoration was to use resources at hand and to make items that will be decorative as well as a fun, self-satisfying project.

Compatability, marriage partners, money managemen and child care were a few of the units covered in Preparation for the Future classes. Students did just that, prepare for, as well as become aware of, the future.

TACT. Teacher Aid Co-Operative Training, provided a way to learn how to work with young children in a school setting. During the second semester students worked as aides in an elementary school. The students also used media in assisting the classroom teachers.

Clothing I and II helped students to gain skills necessary for beginning and intermediate clothing construction. These skills will enable a girl to create an attractive, yet inexpensive wardrobe, suited to her personal needs.

A week in San Diego ends the year

Have you ever wondered how it felt to ride in an Navy aircraft? That's one of the exciting activities that WM's NJROTC did this year under the leadership of Chief T. Mayberry and Commander T. Schneider.

They also participated in various parades throughout the year. They won 1st place in performance and 2nd in Drill Team in the Christmas parade.

Then they had their Annual Military Ball, which everyone said was a beautiful sight.

To top off the end of the year, they went to San Diego, California, to a basic training camp.

1. Mr. Evans admires the plaque that NJROTC gave him, while Larry Romero stands at attention. 2. Chief Thomas Mayberry discusses a ship's radar with his students. 3. Anthony Martinez shapes up! 4. Rosina Roybal, Judy Ortiz, James White, Alfred Vigil, and Carrie Romero are the Color Guards who are performing at the 'piping over' ceremonies for Mr. Robert Evans. 5. Capt. Tony Schneider shows Terry Milford where icebergs originate. 6. Chief Bos'n Altamare shakes hands with Mr. Evans after the ceremonies. 7. Charles Taylor rests while the drill team keeps drilling.

Understanding comes by communicating

Twenty-six language classes were offered in the Language Department this year. These included Spanish, French and German. In addition to learning their native tongue, or one in which they would like to communicate, students also learned the cultural aspects of the country in which that language is spoken.

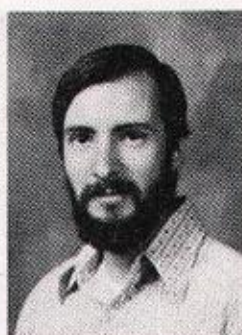

A trip to Mexico in order to witness some of the historical places and practice their Spanish they had learned about was taken by a number of students.

A sound mind in a sound body was the guiding philosophy of West Mesa's Physical Education Department. A complete and enjoyable physical fitness program helped students gain good health. However, these courses offered not only training in a variety of sports and other recreation, but also study and information on health topics. A credit in P.E. was required for Freshmen and Sophomores. Juniors and Seniors P.E. were not required to take it. It was an elective for them. In boys' P.E. there were team and individual sports. With an interest in improving their physical abilities, boys took P.E. II, which also included units in sports and health.

GIRLS' PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Physical Education courses developed skill, stronger bodies and team work with other students. Action in Girls' PE courses came from gymnastics, volleyball, archery, and other forms of recreation. All Sophomores were required to take PE and Freshmen also had to make a credit in this department. It was also offered as an elective to seniors and juniors. Miss Barbara Butler was a new full-time teacher, teaching Freshmen. Miss Gloria Vigil was Department Head.

1. Gymnastics Team sponsor Mrs. Johnson helps sell french fries for money-making project. 2. Getting set to spot is Mrs. Johnson. 3. Helping Michelle Grisham attempt a walk-over is Yvonme Barela. 4. As she does a back walk-over, Wendy Schneider is spotted by Miss Vigil. 5. Showing how to do a straddle pike mount is Wendy Schnider. 6. One member of PE II does a cartwheel.

Receptionist, Mrs. Mary Ann Lucero, is shown answering one of the many calls WM gets every day. 4. Fixing lunch for the students are Mrs. Ramona Solano, Mrs. Isabell Montoya, Mrs. Viola Sanchez (manager), and Mrs. Chris Marino. 5. Taking a few minutes for a breather is Mr. Bob Burns, campus aide. 6. Keeping the school neat and tight are the night custodians, Mr. Emmett Rebio, Mr. James Rose, and Mr. Philip Levandauski.

Many offices provide services

Faculty, students, and administration kept the school going. But also contributing to the efficient operation of the school were secretaries, clerks, and educational aides. These services included keeping records, books, and attendance as well as doing regular secretarial work and all the numerous details these positions involve. The aides helped in the library halls, patio, and in many other areas.

All these people helped improve the environment of West Mesa. They worked closely with both student body and faculty.

MUSTANG WORLD

1. Any pair of editors that would permit The Horse Sheet to come out will usually be found in the principal's office with their feet on the desk. Susan and Lawrence prove the old saying. Nothing is sacred. 2. The Herrera Twins: Danny and Rick, show their great skill, charm and wit in covering a basketball. 3. Modesty permitting, Kim Hedrick, Mary Shenly and Kim McMahon show off the Christmas Mustang World. 4. Our spiritual advisor, guru, and benevolent benefactor and money counter is Mrs. Jaramillo. 5. The radical fringe group consists of Ben Rolfe, Scott Rousseau and Debi Zaccone. Not Pictured is Charles (Crusty) Bunker.

New format brings staff talents to light; Horse Sheet, Column 13, At Odds premiere Every issue of the MUSTANG WORLD sold out this year due to the new format used by the diligent staff members.

The format consisted of a new masthead, front and back covers ranging from Lady Godiva on a horse to Mr. Evans on a horse, point, counter-point editorials, the use of graphic designs, continued features and puzzles.

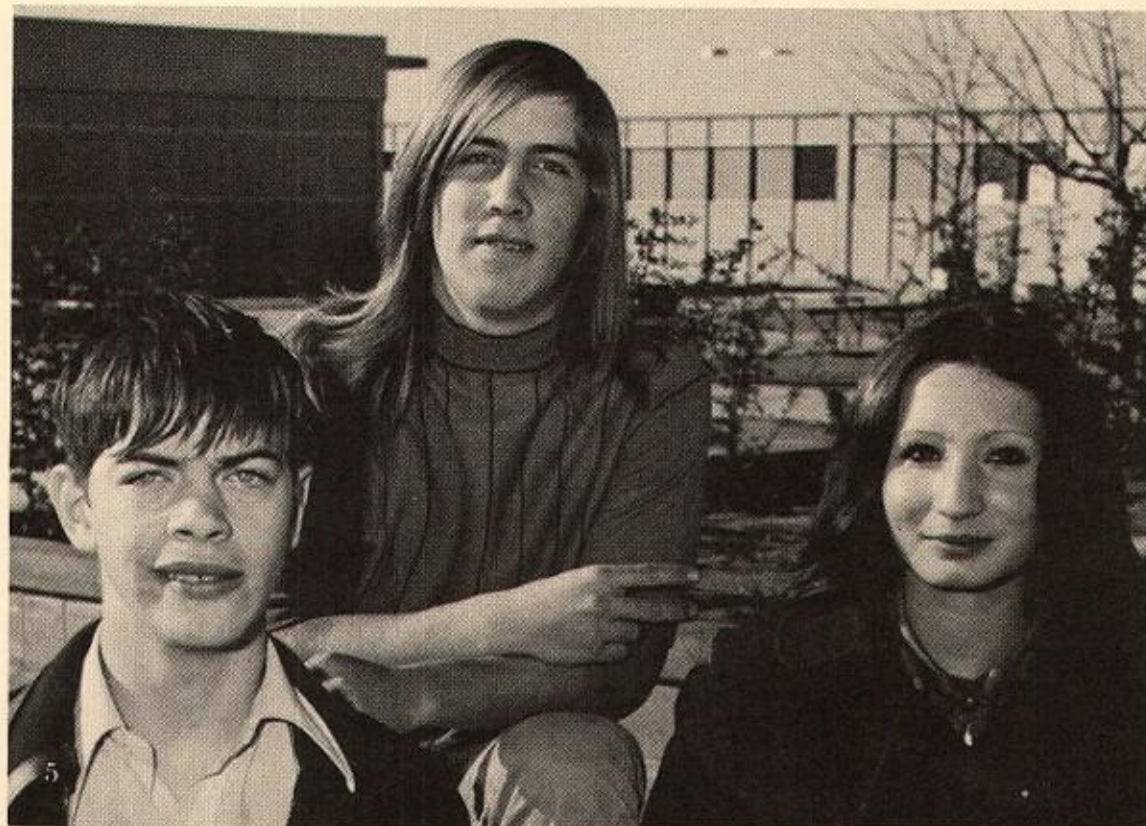

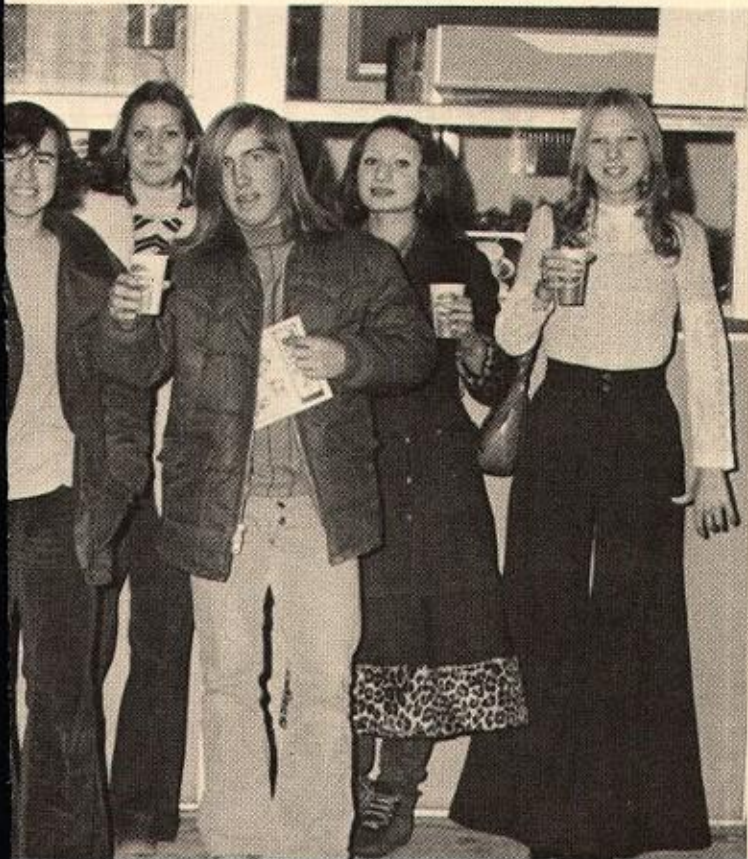

MUSTANG WORLD, INC. also came out with THE HORSE SHEET, a "new humor newspaper of the type that gets burned by people from all walks of life."

The biggest staff in five years worked harder than ever. Even though there were 20 staffers there was still plenty of work to go around. As a team this staff sought to create the best possible book. Often to achieve this goal, many hours of after school work were necessary. The true reward for all these efforts is seen now, in the finished product.

Ellen, Buddy

CLASSES

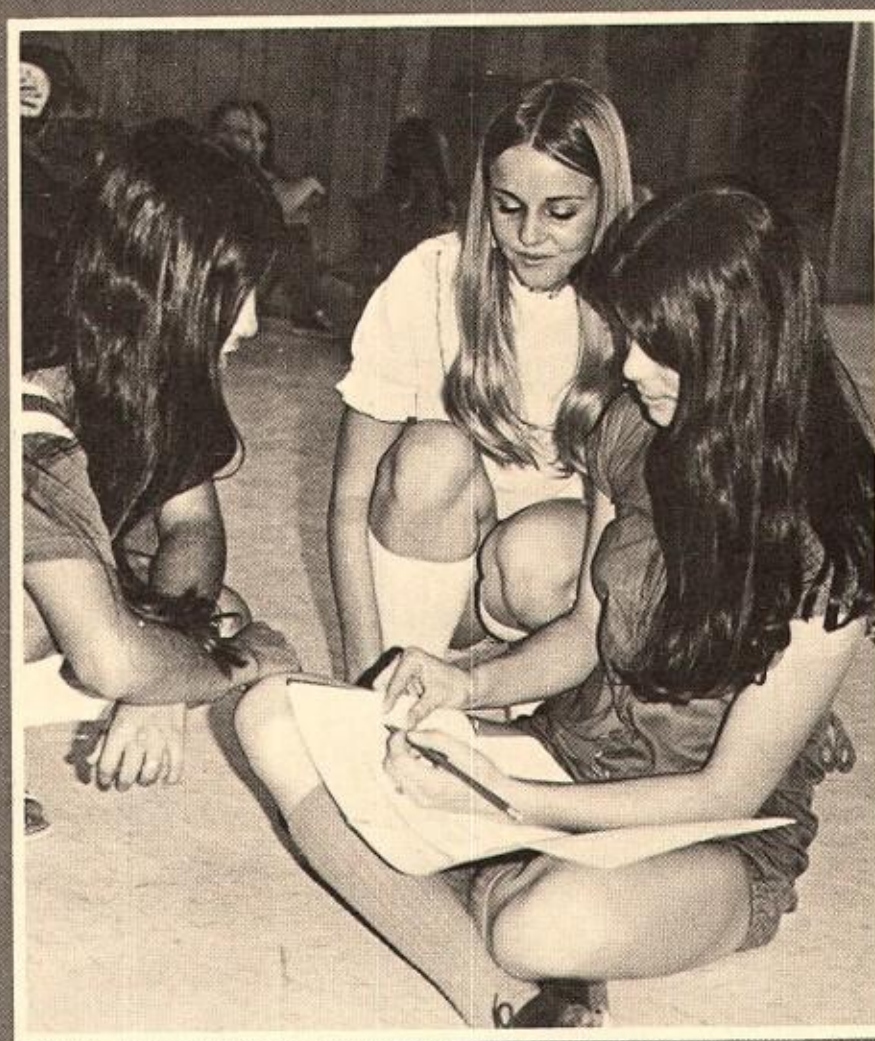

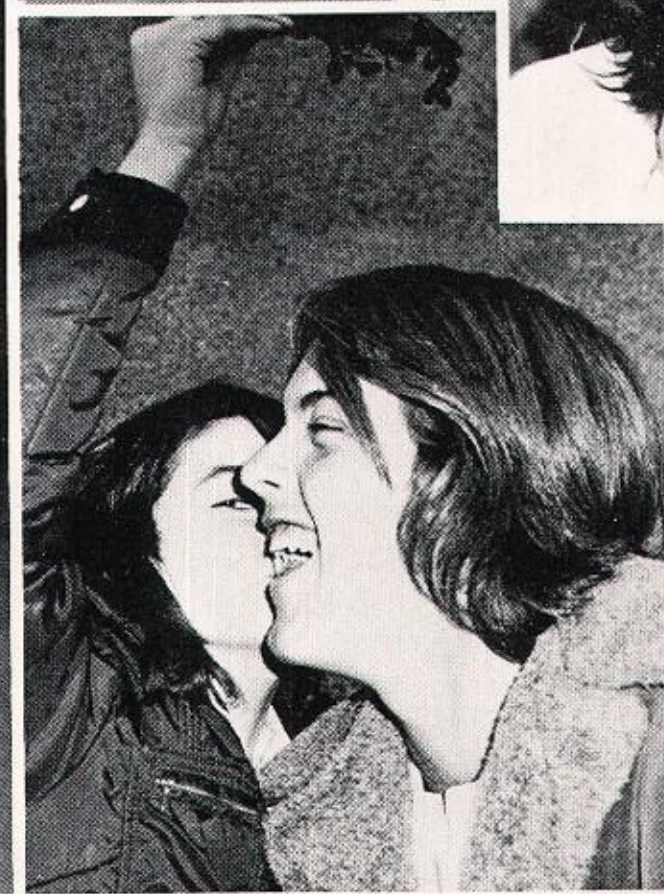

This year senior class broke the tradition of having the annual Homecoming dance at school. It was held at the Hilton Inn Downtown, with everyone dancing to the music of "Medusa." Several other dances were also held in order to raise money for a senior gift and trip.

Mixed emotions filled many seniors' minds as they ordered graduation announcements and caps and gowns because this meant that graduation was only a few short months away.

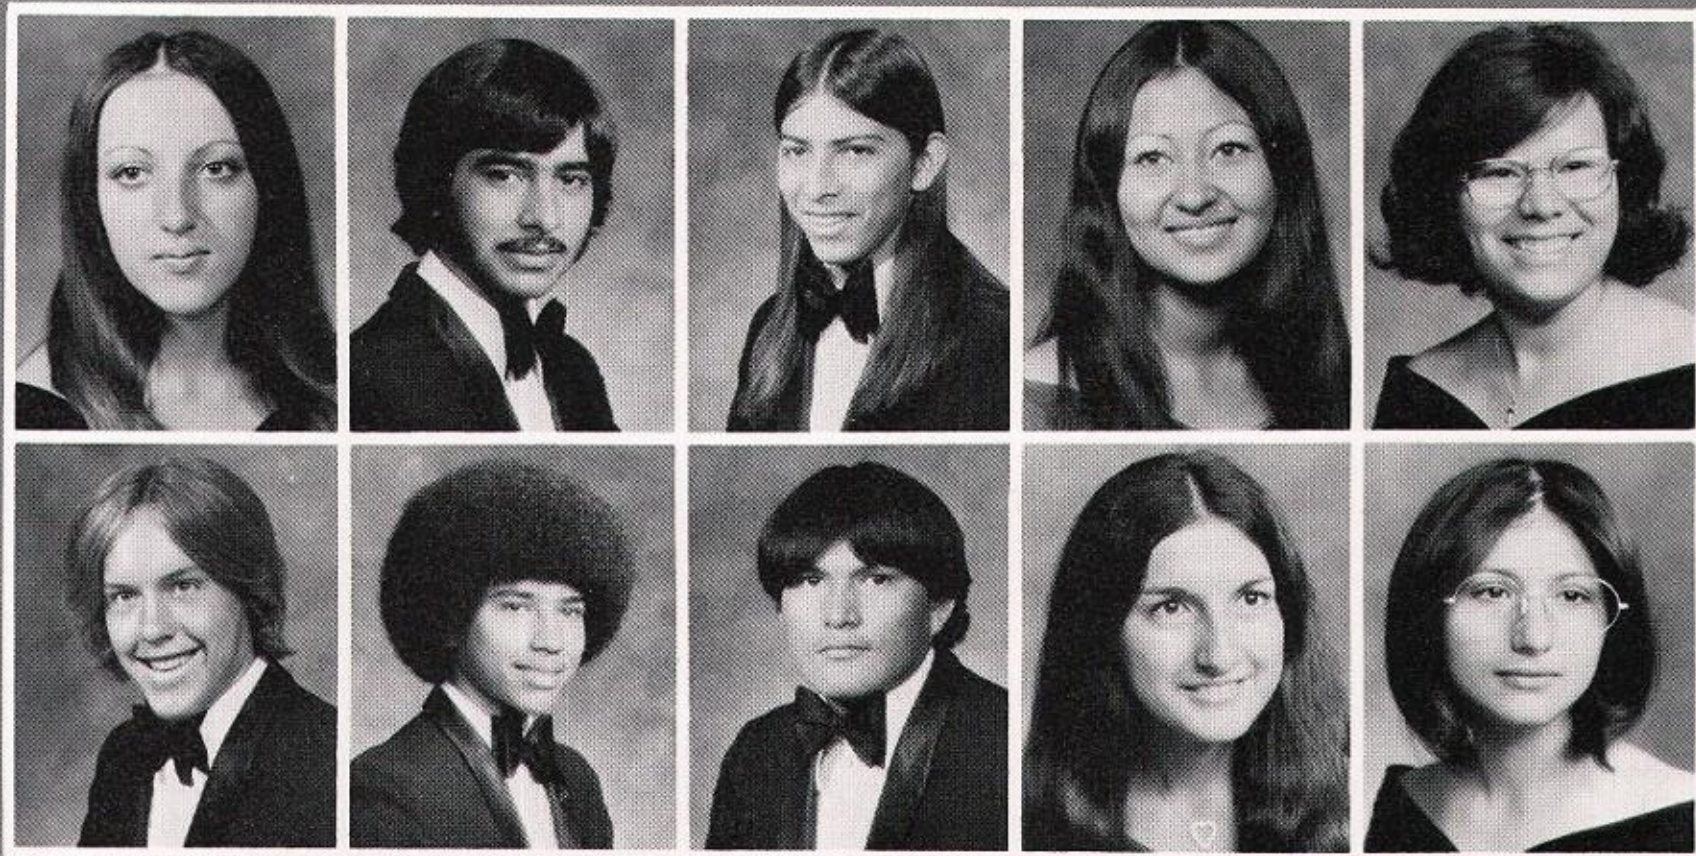

1. Mike Montano, treasurer; Albert Santillanes, president; Albert Sanchez, vice-president; Kookie Alderete, secretary. 2. Discussing demerits with Kim Easley are Head Captain Betty Lujan and Captain Cathy Santillanes, Fillies.

How were your junior high school teachers different from your high school teachers?

'I think high school teachers have better and newer approaches to teaching than junior high ones do.'

'I liked my junior high teachers better. My high school teachers are so hard. Sometimes I feel like I'm in college.'

'One difference I noticed is that I've gotten to know a few of my high school teachers real well; whereas in junior high I didn't even know their names.'

Do you like to come to school?

'I like to come because my teacher reminds me of my mother, my classroom reminds me of my bedroom and the principal looks just like my uncle. The part I don't like is my report card. It reminds me of punishment.'

'I hardly ever come to school. It ruins my whole day.'

Do you enjoy the assemblies?

'Yes, especially when the music from the band vibrates my teeth.'

'I guess so. It's the only time we get out of class to watch the cheerleaders. Wow!'

'I think they are pretty good this year. The only complaint I have is that the first assembly is better than the second one is.'

WEST MESA

SPORTS

Three defeats and then seven victories in a row with four of them being shut-outs were some of the ingredients of the Big Blue Machine's successful gridiron season.

After the first three whitewashings handed to WM by Sandia, 0-19; Roswell, 0-41; and Del Norte, 0-27, Coach Jimmy Juarez decided this was not the way the Proud Red, White and Blue should work things out, so he changed 17 starting positions out of 22 and what happened? To the awe of Albuquerque and WM, the Mustangs were back on the winning side. As if the season were starting again, WM was showing new power.

Manzano, who hadn't done too well in their three previous games either but at least scored, were determined to beat the Mustangs; but the depth of the Mustang varsity team overcame the Monarchs 20-6.

West Mesa was now to meet Highland, who at that time was ranked seventh in the state polls. Though they felt ready for the underdog Mustangs, the game with Highland was noted as being the upset of the gridiron extravaganza. The Mustangs, early in the game, took a slight edge which was able to hold up under the Hornets due to the mighty defense. The only real threat came late in the fourth quarter when the Hornets went through the weakening defense.

With only two minutes remaining, the Hornets were on the WM five yard line and in four plays they could not drive through the tough WM defense. The Blue Men won easily, 15-0.

The next week in Los Alamos the district opener was played, and WM won 32-6 as they combatted the oversized Hilltoppers.

The following week Albuquerque High was the second district victory, and the game proved to be the second shut-out for district competition. Having four tough quarters the Mustangs won, 14-0.

Farmington was smashed by the Big Blue with the score of 28-12.

WM by now knew that they would probably be on the way to the district 1AAAA crown even though they had two more regular season games left. Santa Fe and Gallup were next on the roster.

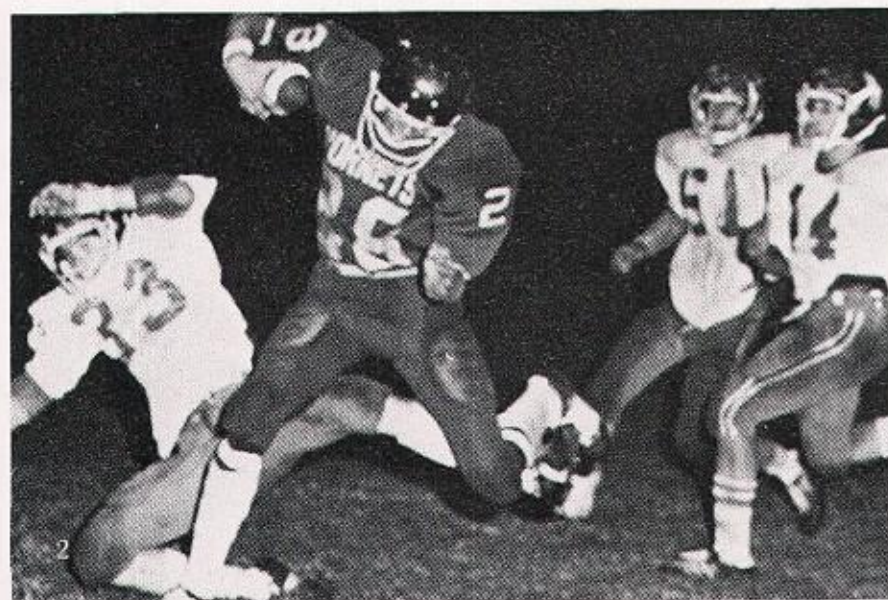

Against Santa Fe, WM scored poorly in the game and then it turned it into a defensive battle. West Mesa won defeating Santa Fe, 14-0.

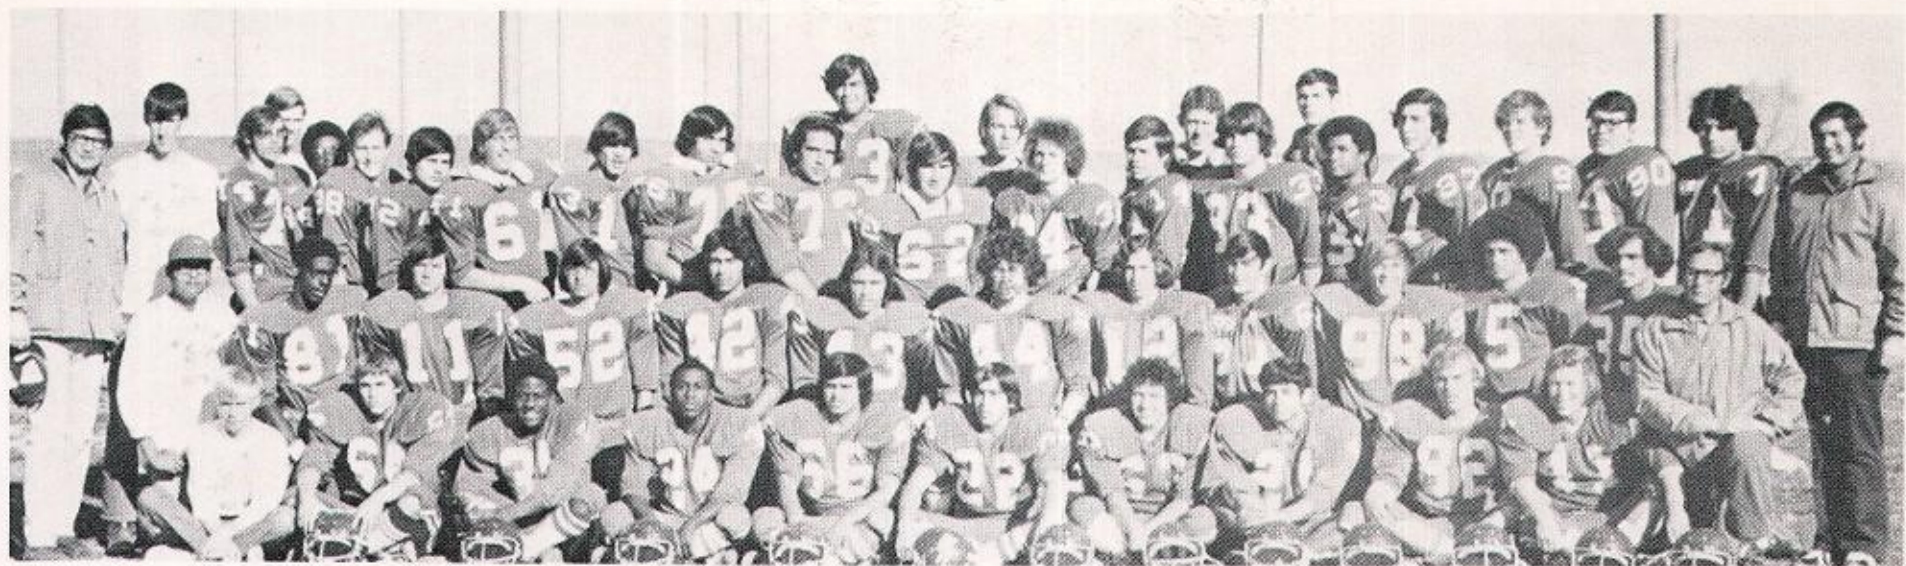

Travelling to Gallup, WM already proved that they were district champs while chalking up another victory at 12-0, their fourth shut-out.

Going into the Hobbs semi-final game, WM took an early lead on an Eagle fumble which stood until two consecutive touchdowns by Hobbs early in the fourth quarter put the score at 18-7. WM was determined not to give up and fought to the Hobbs five yard line with just seconds to go, plowing over for the final score, 18-14. Hobbs did it again.

The hardwork that went into the season was not in vain as the season was the second best in WM's history.

1. Rodger Creel makes a vain attempt to gain yardage against the Roswell Coyotes as the Mustangs lost 41-0. 2. The coming of age for the Mustangs was the awesome victory over the Highland Hornets, 13-9, in the city game of the year. 3. Junior Robert Griffith awaits instructions from Coach Jimmy Juarez during the Roswell game. 4. Fullback Rodger Creel, #33, dives into the line on a short yardage down against Hobbs. 5. Quarterback Mike Otero is about to make the decision whether to run or to sweep around the right side. Blocking for Mike are linemen Jimmy Carrillo #73 and Fuzz Trujillo #72. Also in on the play is Rodger Creel #33.

Coach Jimmy Juarez for the second time in three years has won the tribune 1979 Coach of the Year award for his work with the most inexperienced Mustangs.

WM had only five returning starters from last year's team and also lost the first three games without scoring a single point, but coming back to become district champs and a play-off berth has to be attributed to something, and it was Coach Jimmy Juarez.

1. Against Belen two West Mesa B-teamers converge on a Highland running back who was sorry to catch the ball by the time the tackle was made. 2. Sophomore tailback, Quentin Stephens, shows his speed on faking ability as he puts a move on two humble Bulldogs. 3. Coach Ken Johnson waits for a victory. Highland lost 9-8. Here they are watching across the field at the half. 4. Here Mustangs, in light jerseys, show ability to hold the tough Bulldog line as they punt. 5. B-teamers prepare for action. 6. Colts trap a rambunctious running back from Del Norte, WM lost 22-18. 7. Running back Quentin Stephens sweeps right end for a large gain. 8. Coach Simon Chavez and Coach Toby Singer ready themselves for a freshmen game.

Freshmen Football Team 1974

Cross Country

The cross-country team started off the year by beating Valley in a dual meet. Throughout the year, the team had a very good season winning seven regular meets against Valley, Del Norte, Rio Grande, Albuquerque High, St. Pius, Highland and El Dorado, and losing only once to Del Norte by one point.

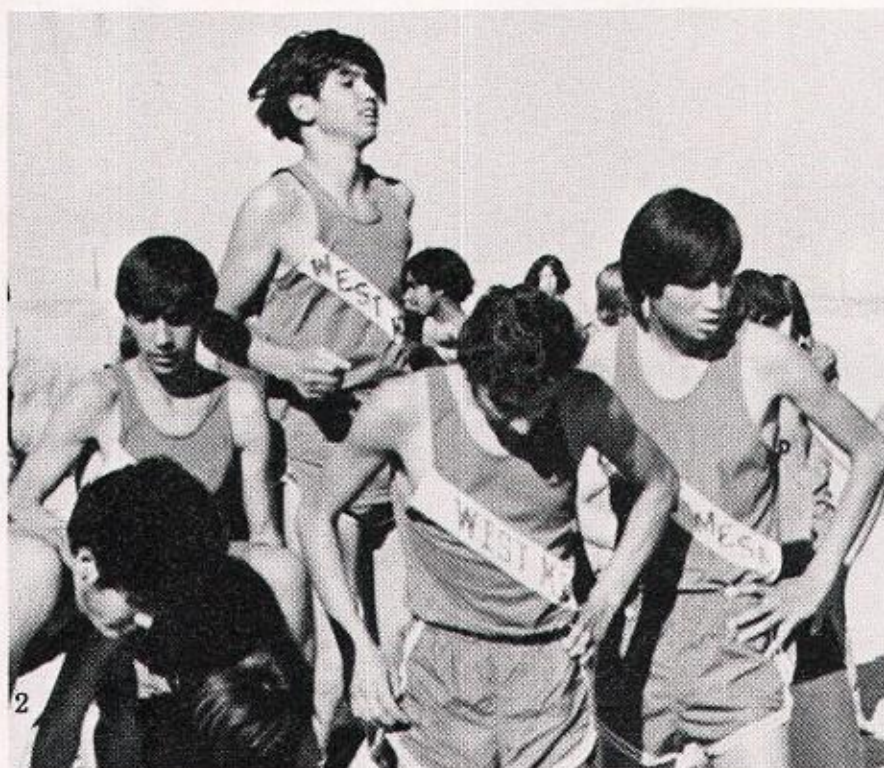

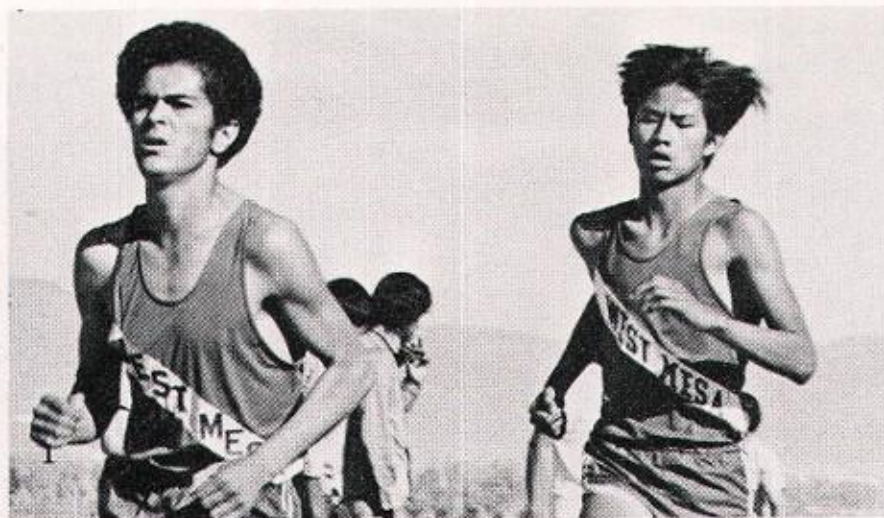

The group also attended three invitationals and hosted the Third Annual West Mesa Invitational. They took second place in the Gallup Invitational, fourth place in the El Dorado Invitational, second place in the Los Alamos, and third in the West Mesa meet. The team gained three trophies in these invitationals.

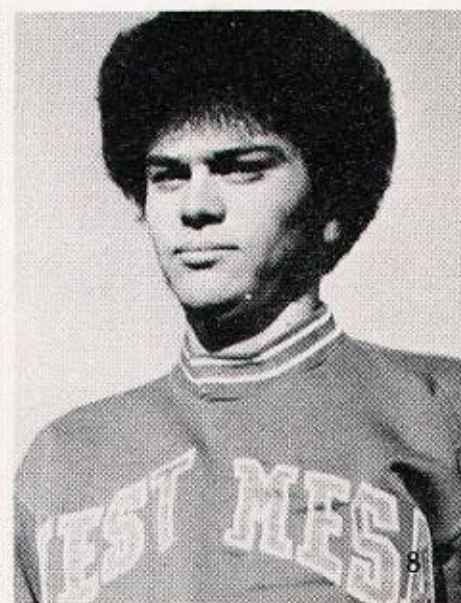

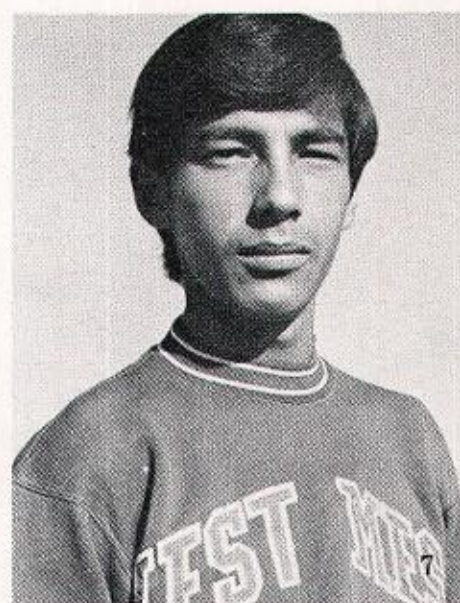

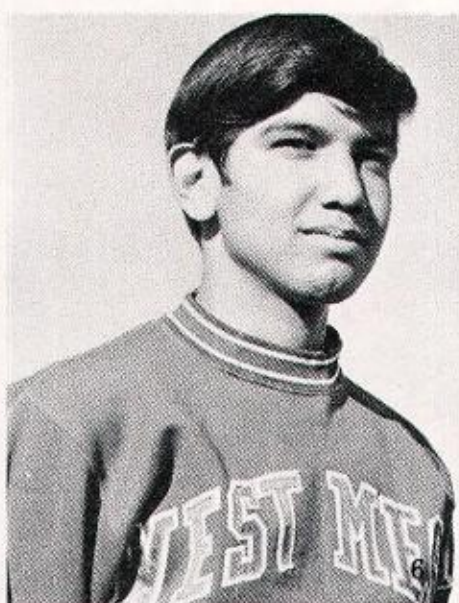

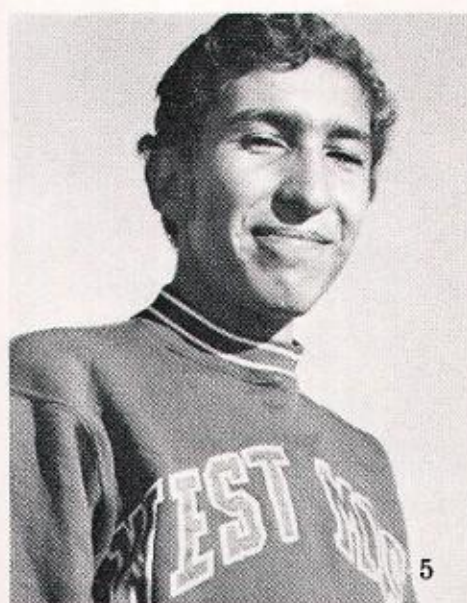

West Mesa also hosted the district 1AAAA championships this year. Mustangs took second place in the district losing to Santa Fe by one point and earning the right to run at the State Meet in Roswell for the third year in a row.

At state, the Mustangs took sixth place in the AAAA Meet. Senior Ronnie Maestas took fourth place with a time of fourteen minutes and fifty-three seconds, less than five minutes per mile over the three mile course.

The B-Team captured first place in district with Bob Francisco taking first place.

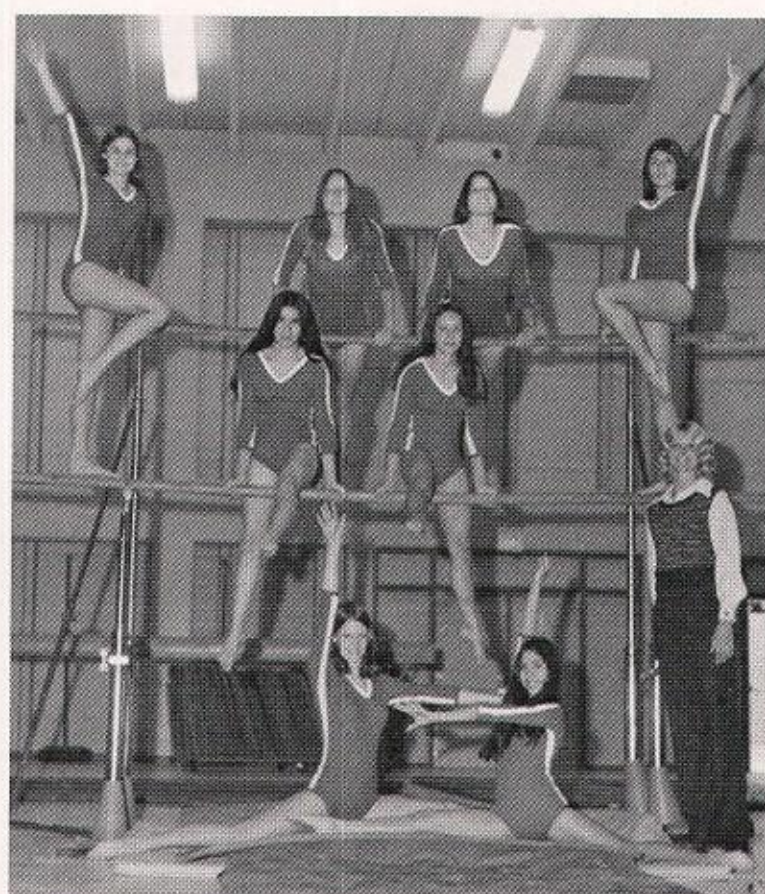

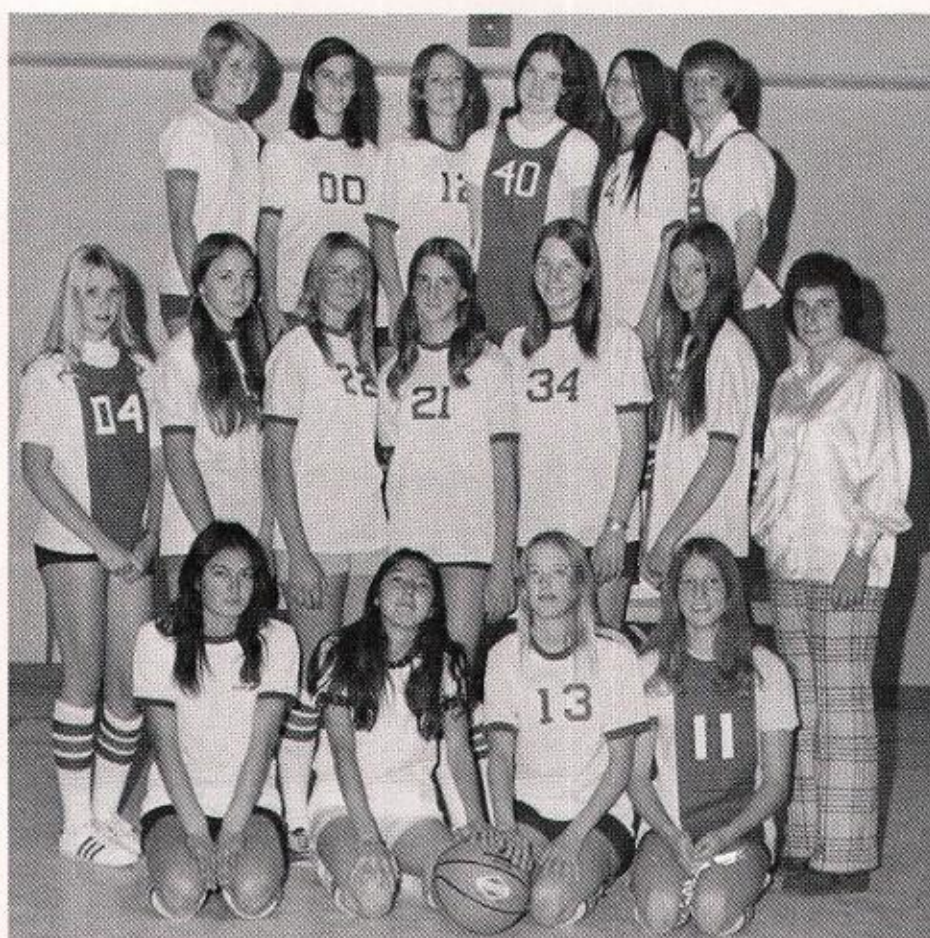

1. Anthony Garcia and Sam Nelson are nose-to-nose at the half-way point in the district meet.
2. The varsity team does its last minute "psyche-up" on the starting line before the district meet.
3. Top Mustang runner, Ronnie Maestas, receives the District 1AAAA second place trophy from Coach Louis Yannoni. West Mesa lost the meet.
4. Standing are Coach Louis Yannoni, Dennis Valdez, Sam Nelson, Daniel Herrera, Louie Montoya, Ronnie Maestas, Mark Nelson, Ector Manriquez, Pat Herrera, and assistant coach Jerry Snider. Kneeling are Kenny Chavez, James Sanchez, Manuel Gonzales, James Baca, Aurelio Montoya, Michael Arias, Bob Francisco, and Matt Azevedo.

West Mesa's Mighty Mustangs finished with a 7-17 season, including post-season games. They gained a pocketful of experience.

Coach Fred Romero's Blue Brigade did not fulfil his dreams of becoming District 1AAAA champs but most of this can be largely attributed to Lady Luck because most of the regular season players were plagued by injuries or had to quit the team.

Coach Romero finished the season with many sophomores on his Varsity Team, two seniors and a few juniors.

"As the season came to an end, we started winning a few games," noted Coach Romero. "If this had happened sooner, we would have had a fine team," he continued.

Certain conclusions can be drawn from glancing at B-Team statistics. Coach Louis Yannoni got it together early and kept a strong ball club. With an upset over the gigantic Manzano Monarchs, WM knew they had a good enough team to play and maintain any team. This they did by losing only six games the entire year. The best B-Team ever dressed out for the Mustangs was the 1973-74 squad.

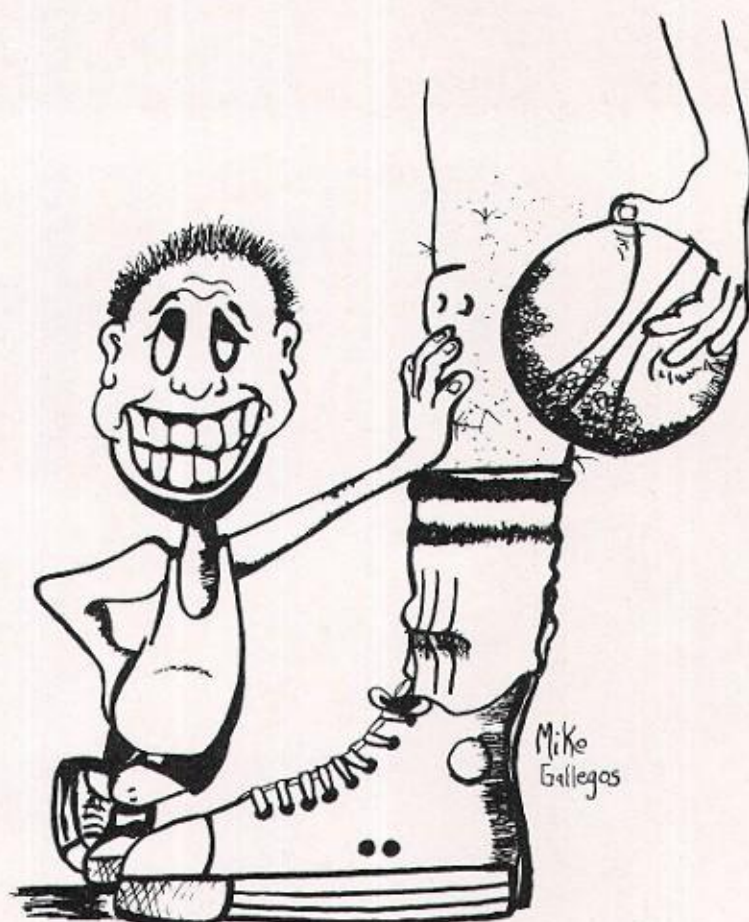

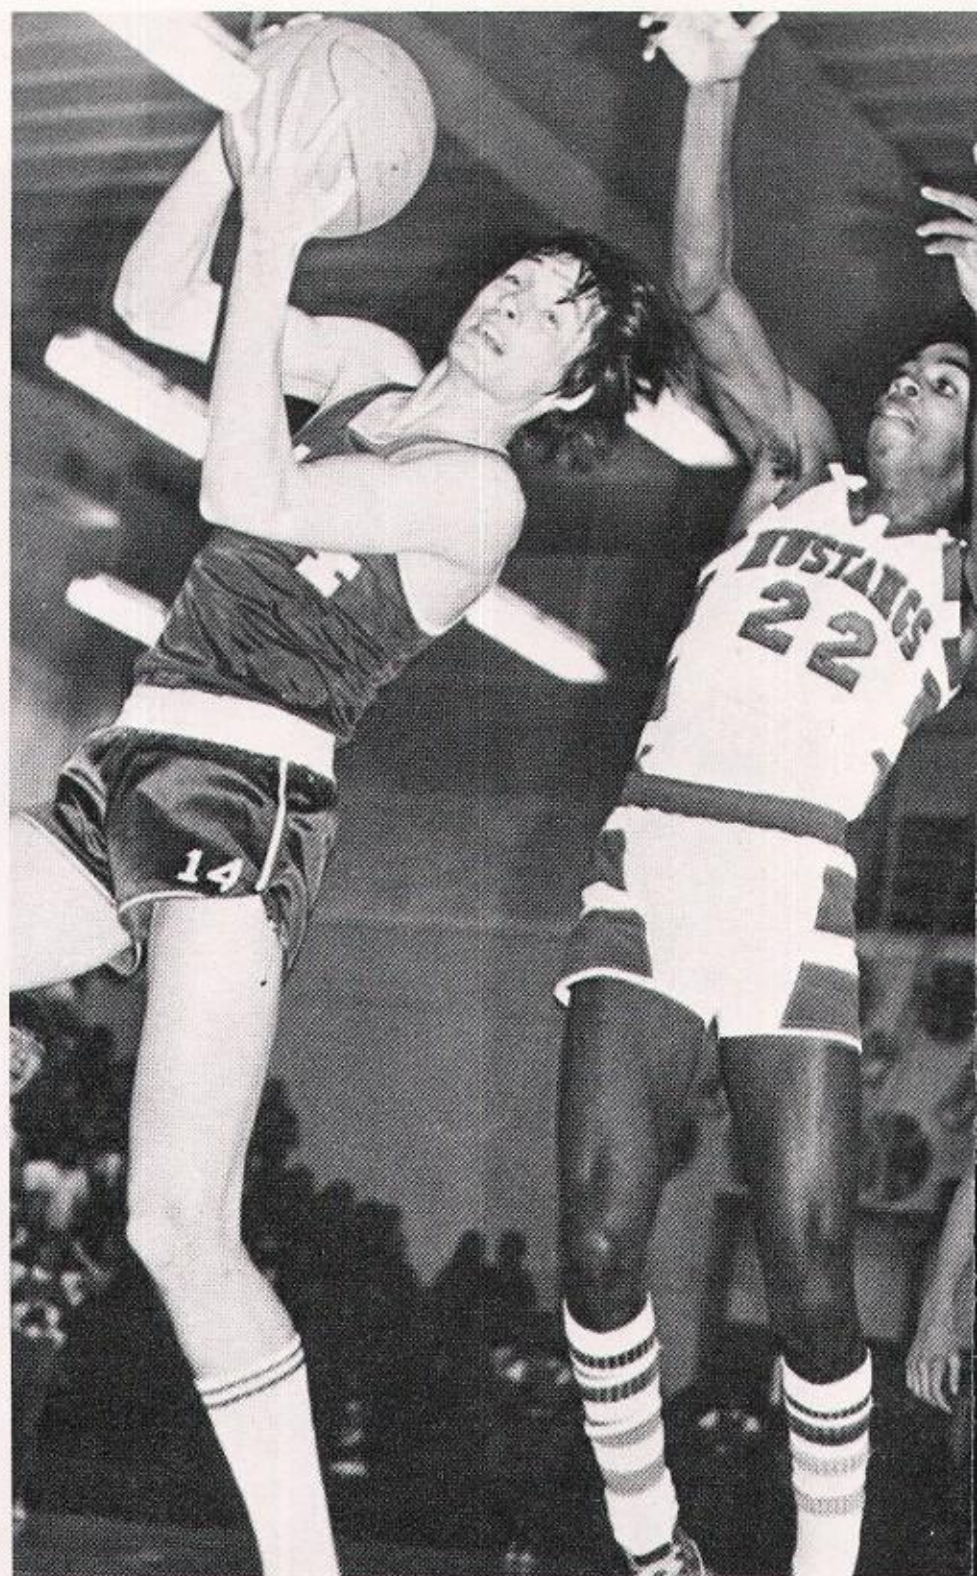

As C-Team stacked up, led by Coach Jerry Snider, they were probably the best all-around good team the city had with a record of 15-5 and a 2nd place spot in the city.

Coach Snider worked his kids as a team and that's what brought in victories.

The Freshman Team had a good season, tying for 3rd in the city with Polk and losing only four games during the season.

Coach Pete Pino led his team to victory and stressed the point that a winning attitude is a necessity.

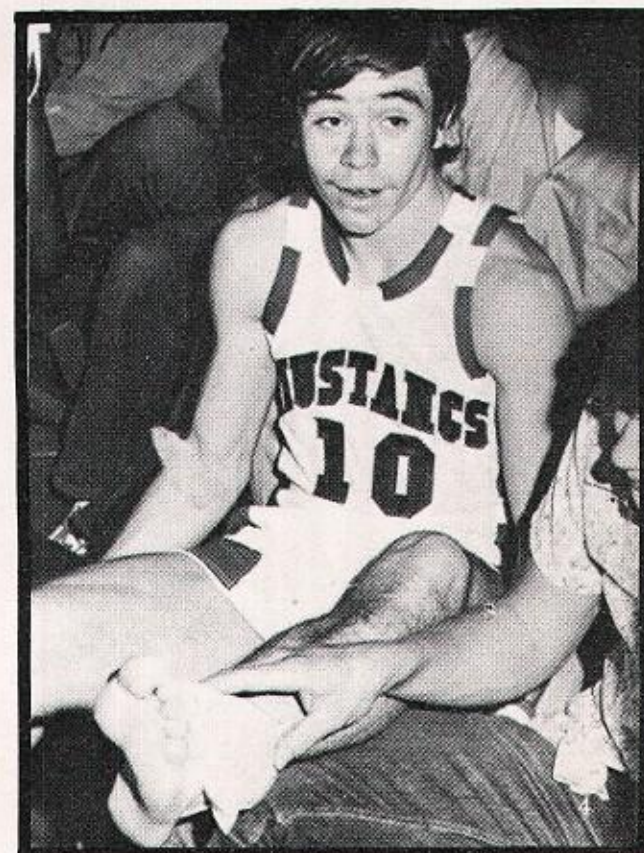

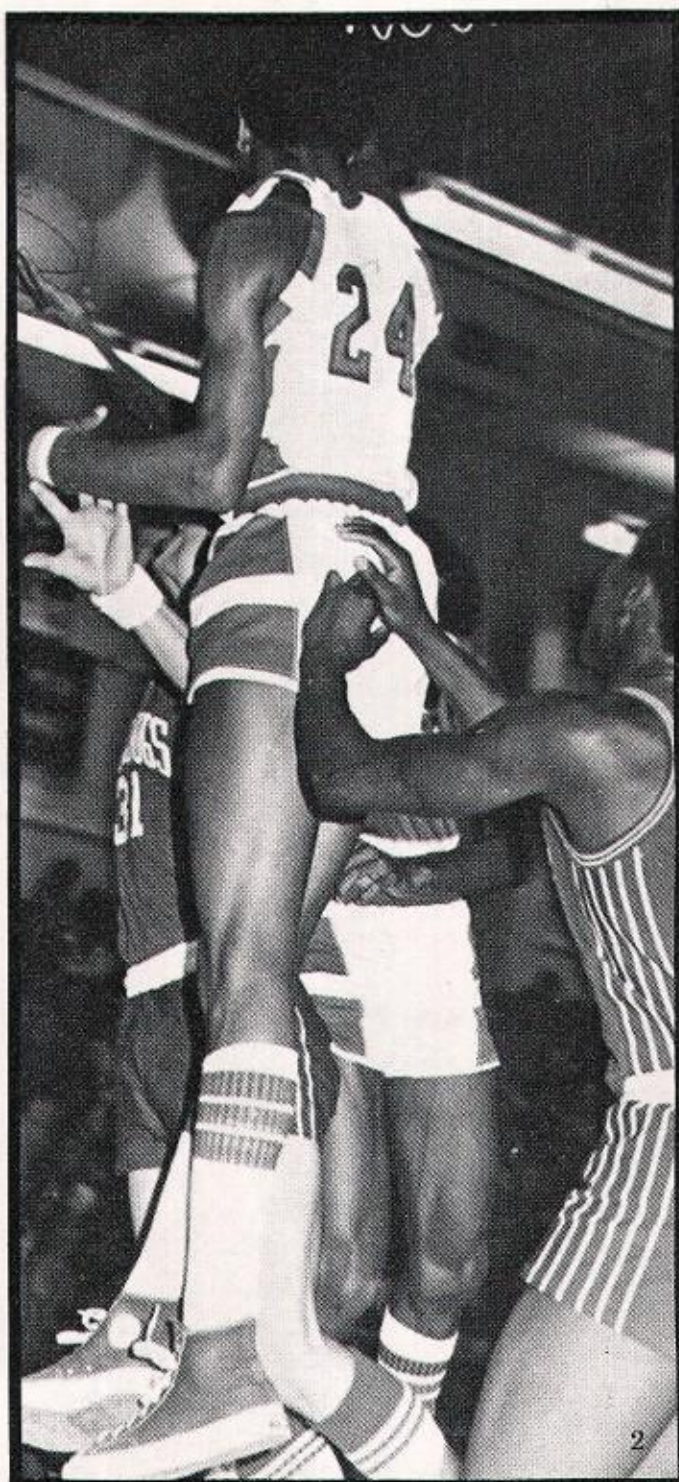

1. Sophomore Ronnie Lowe (22) goes up with the intent of blocking a Los Alamos player's off-balance lay up. 2. Junior Cager, Greg Ellis jumps high near the rim to pull down a tough rebound. 3. Against Albuquerque High, announcer Pat Elwell pauses during the course of the game. Wm lost, 53-38. 4. The only two seniors to play basketball for WM this year are Kurt Pasnewski and Charles Pettit. Here Kurt holds Chuck's sprained ankle he sustained during the AHS endeavor.

1. Sophomore Brian Cafferty awaits a rebound as teammate Darrell Alton (Not Pictured) takes a 10 ft. jump shot in the Albuquerque High endeavor. 2. Sophomores Rusty Hugg (54) and Brian Cafferty (52) apply pressure to a Los Alamos player. 3. C-teamer Joe Zamora puts in two from the top of the key against Los Alamos. Joe was the team leader. 4. Freshman Randy Oretaga jumps high in the air to put in two against Jackson. 5. Looking on as Andy Gallegos (21) takes a jump shot is Louie Martinez (11), two freshmen who helped with the team's success. 6. Freshman Tim Caffery goes in for two as the result of a fast breaking lay-up.

Wrestling

As wrestling stacked up, WM had a runner-up district team which qualified all but one member for State. The result was two district champs and one state champ.

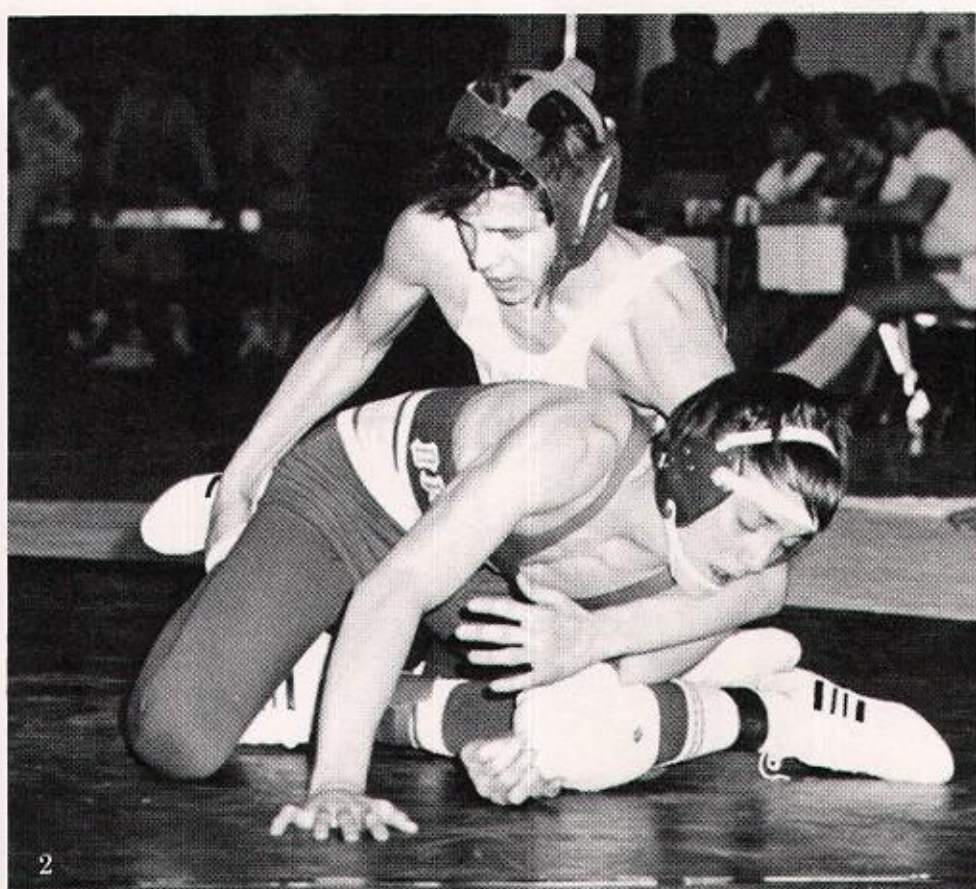

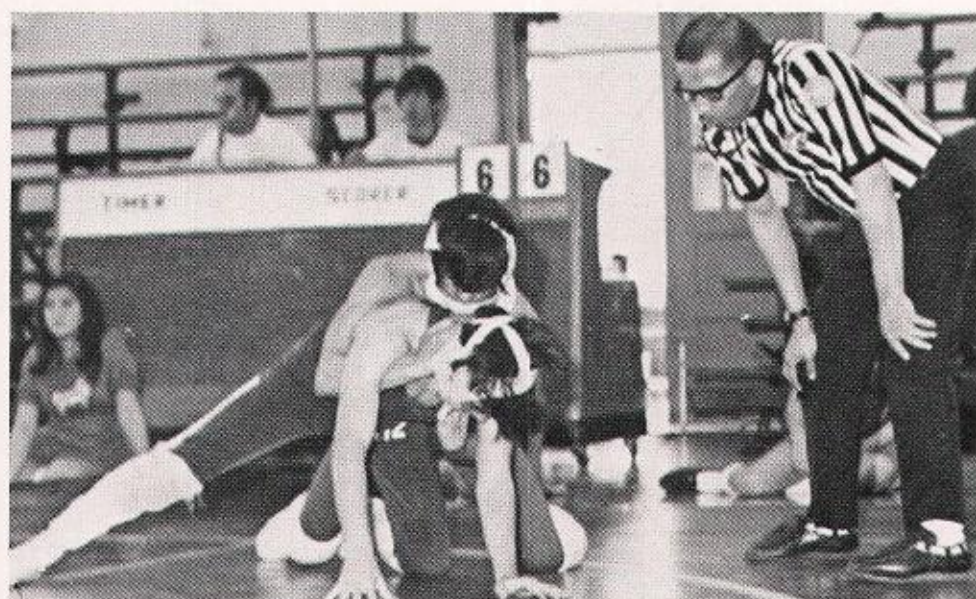

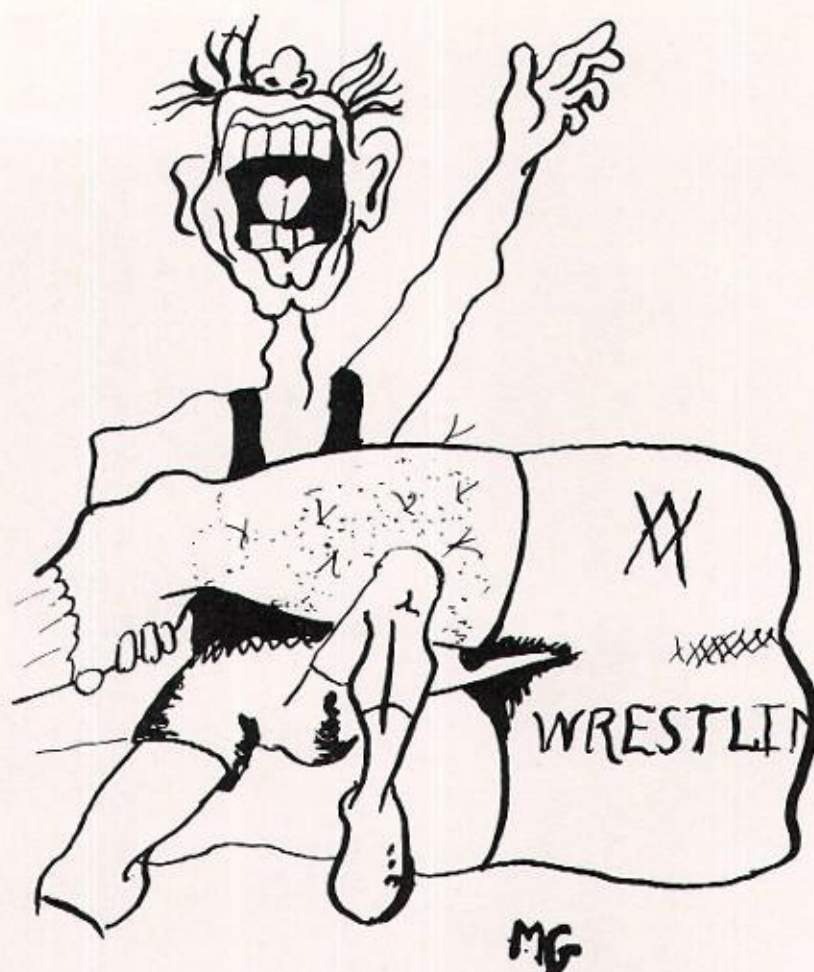

The grapplers finished the season 6-5-2, recording the first winning season since 1968 when the Big Blue Machine took District. The matmen were coached by Mr. Tony Gallegos, who was once a Mustang student.

In district competition WM finished 2nd coming out of the tourney behind well-balanced AHS, only losing by six points. AHS went on to take State.

WM's state champ this year was Marty Garcia who had been wrestling varsity since his sophomore year. Marty wrestled in the 105 lb. division and only lost one match the whole year.

B-team was a winning team also being undefeated in district. Freshmen learned from the B-Team as they completed the season 3-3.

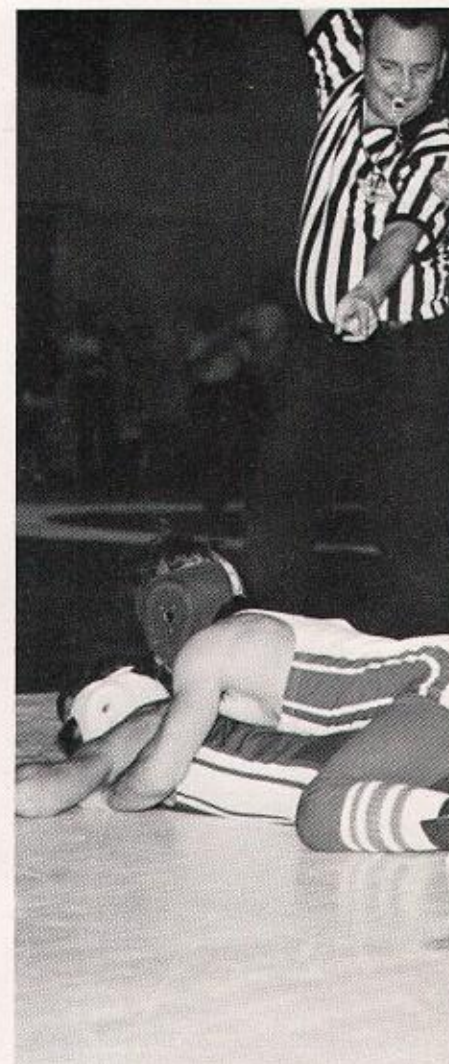

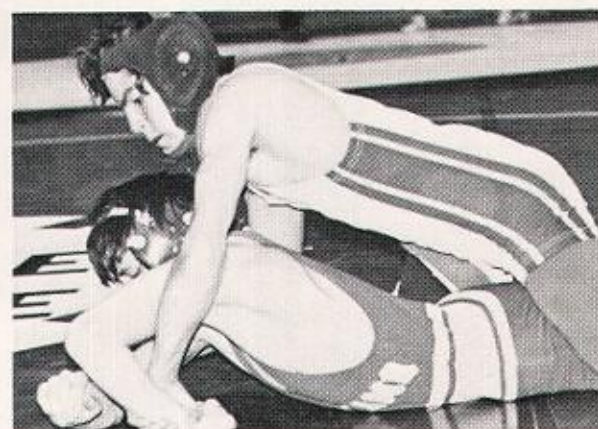

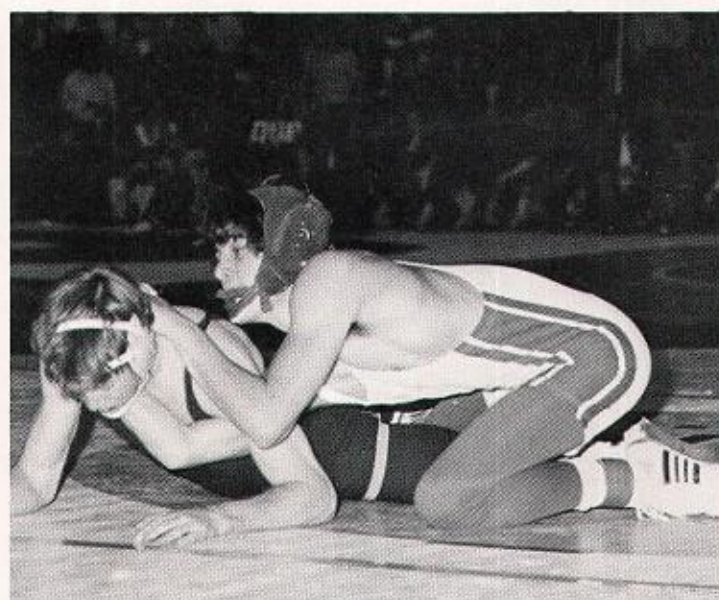

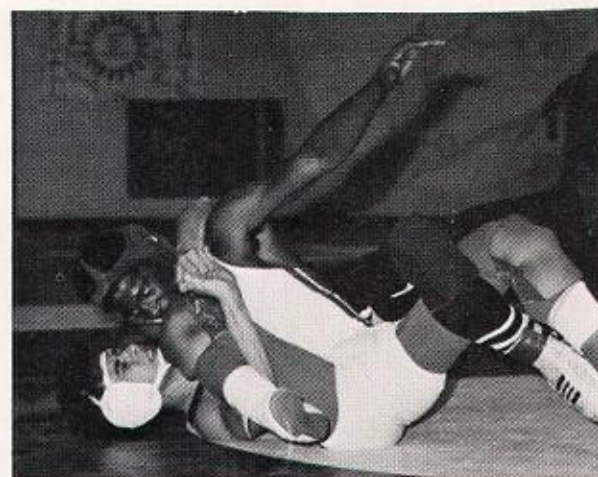

1. An unidentified B-Teamer tries to overpower his opponent in one of the wrestling matches this past year. 2. Grappler Fred Sanchez prepares to over-turn his foe during the state tourney. 3. Senior matman Marty Garcia finishes off Rio Grande's Rudy Archuleta for the state championship. He was the only Mustang state champ. 4. Wrestler Stanley Teal gives it all he has against his opponent in the state mat tourney. 5. Junior Jimmy Gallegos attempts to turn over his foe during the state tilt. 6. Mustang Mike Otero tries for an escape to re-plan his strategy. 7. To place third in district isn't easy, but senior Fred Sanchez shows how it's done.

The baseball team for 1974 put on the required equipment and went out and did the job.

Optimism rang loud in Mustang City when the sound of cleats was heard. The team was the best ever in WM history. They were led by eight seniors, all but one having played the preceeding year. There were a few juniors and one sophomore on the team.

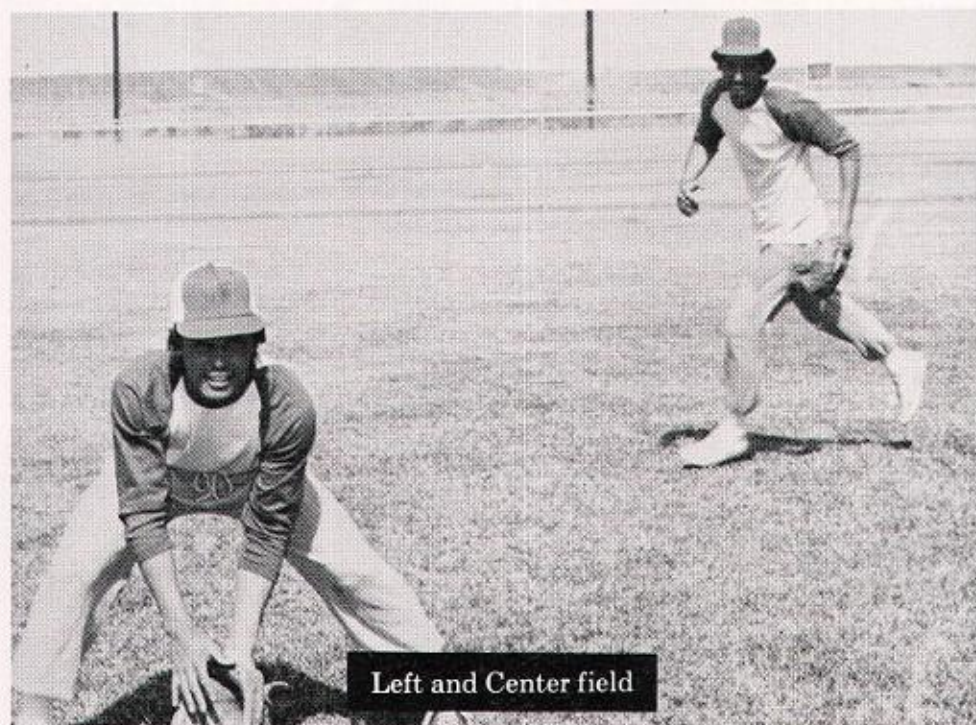

The district included WM, Santa Fe, AHS, Gallup, Los Alamos, and Farmington.

B-Team was coached by Mr. Ken Johnson, who used new techniques, which may have matured the team that much faster.

The Freshman Team, as in other 9th grade sports, did better than average, going against some opponents with ease. The Ponies had an ex-Mustang at the helm, Coach Bill Gracey.

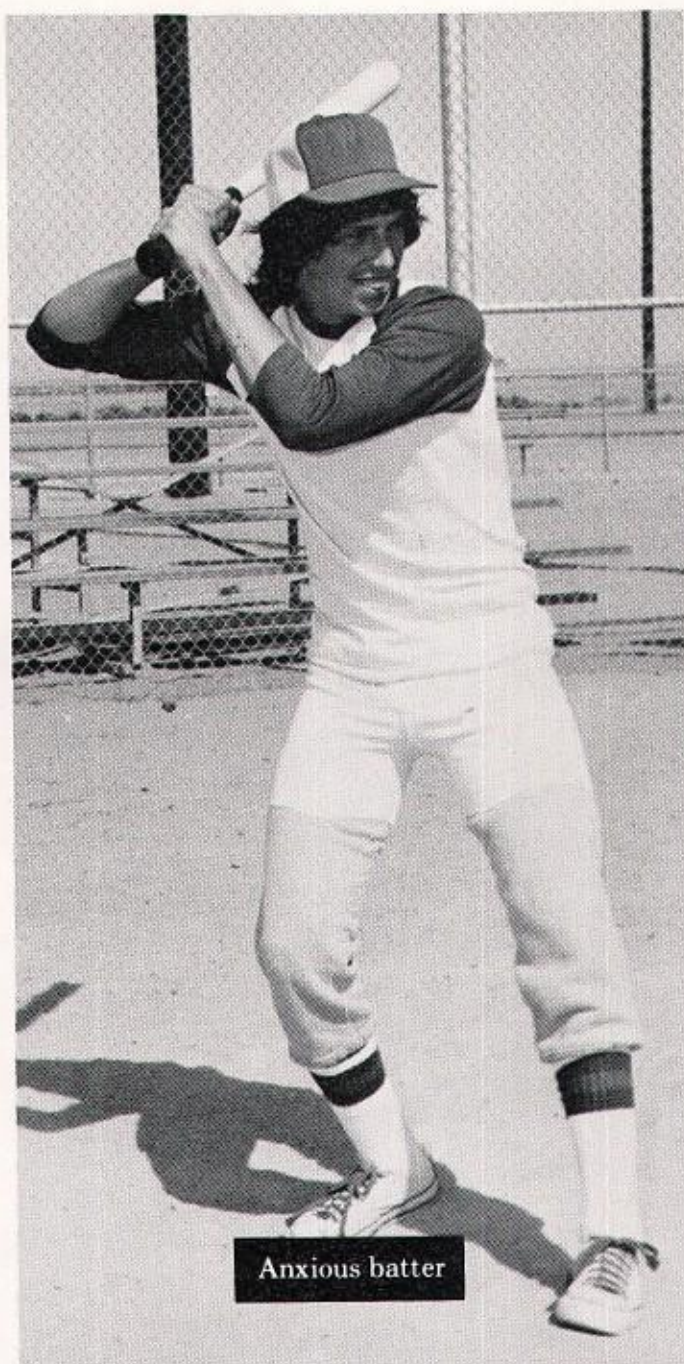

Manzano and Valley were thought to be the two toughest opponents for WM at the beginning of the season. As district stood, the Big Blue Machine was in a recessive conference with themselves as the only powerhouse team.

Coach Jim Campanella noted the team as being tough, with enough potential to beat almost any other team.

Track & Field

One thing about the track team this year was there were enough people out for the track events but in the field events WM was inexperienced.

Being coached by Mr. Jim Spencer meant, among other things, hard work and dedication, coach Spencer kept a program for daily procedures.

Experience was gained by sophomores as Coach Jerry Snider moved some of them up to varsity track.

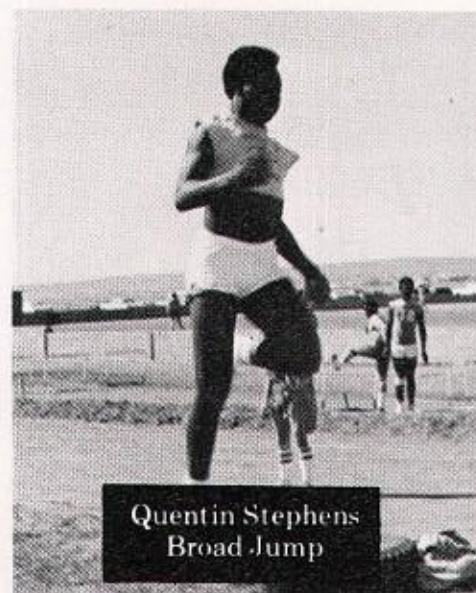

The freshmen were led by Coach Pete Pino, who when it comes to hard work, knows what it's all about.

Golf, Tennis

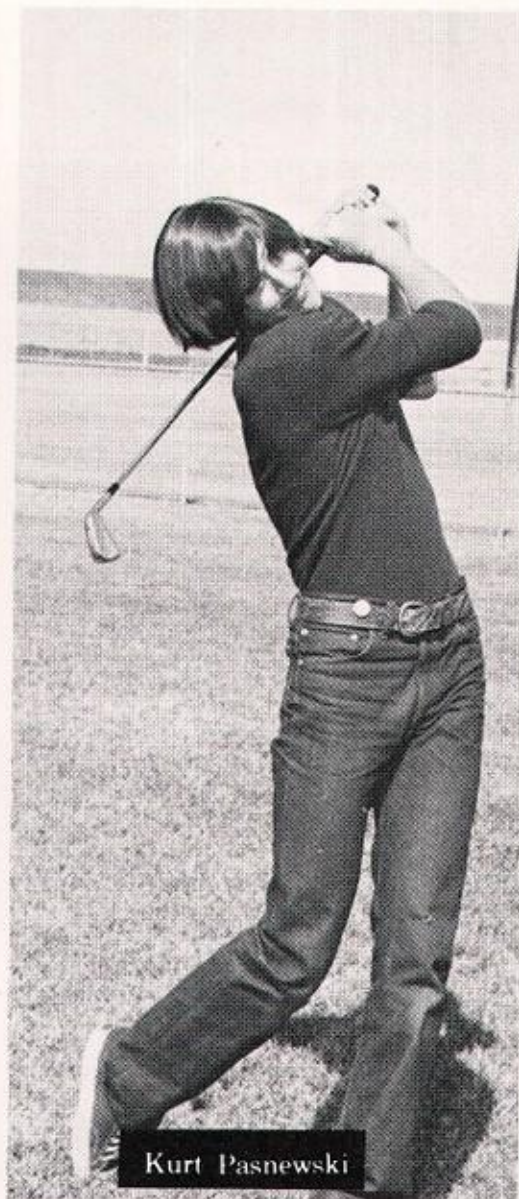

Golf As you look back at previous seasons, golf for WM has been one of the highlight sports. Taking district the past two years and 4th in state last year, isn't bad.

This year there were three returning lettermen and two new people. The team shaped up as the season progressed and was an easy qualifier for state. The district it was in was 1AAAA with teams like Farmington, Gallup, Los Alamos, Santa Fe and Albuquerque High.

The year on a whole proved to be successful for the spring swingers.

Tennis With eight starters out of eight graduating from last year, Mustang tennis got off to a surprisingly good start with a few girls on the team and of course the guys.

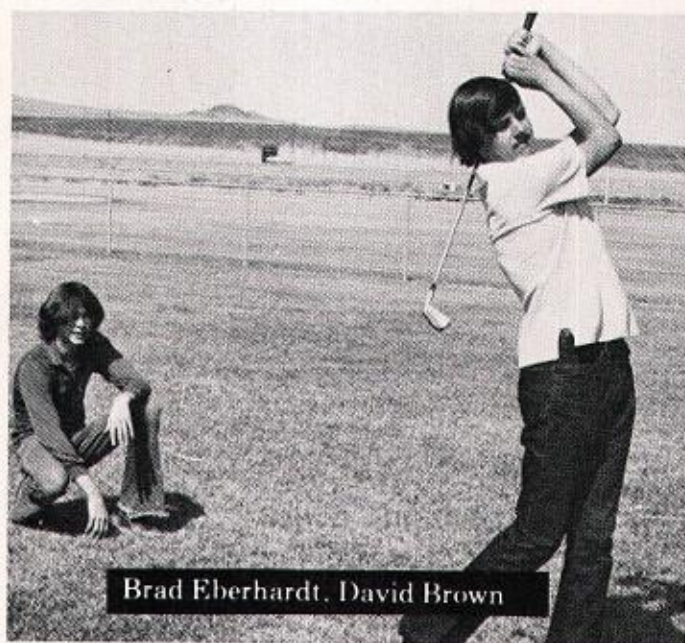

Their district was the same as that of golf and other sports. Los Alamos was the one team that handed the bums the most trouble. The season shaped up and inexperience was overshadowed by attitude.

ORGANIZATIONS

Candy salesmen form

At the end of last year, Student Council had twenty members left.

This year over 150 students attended SC throughout the year, with half that number becoming members.

In addition to the usual activities of Mustang Day and the Teachers' Banquet, SC also cleared up difficulties involved in getting the road paved, recommended clubs for acceptance, rewrote the constitution, helped with various civic drives at school, had both principals at "rap sessions," and served as a forum for student debate.

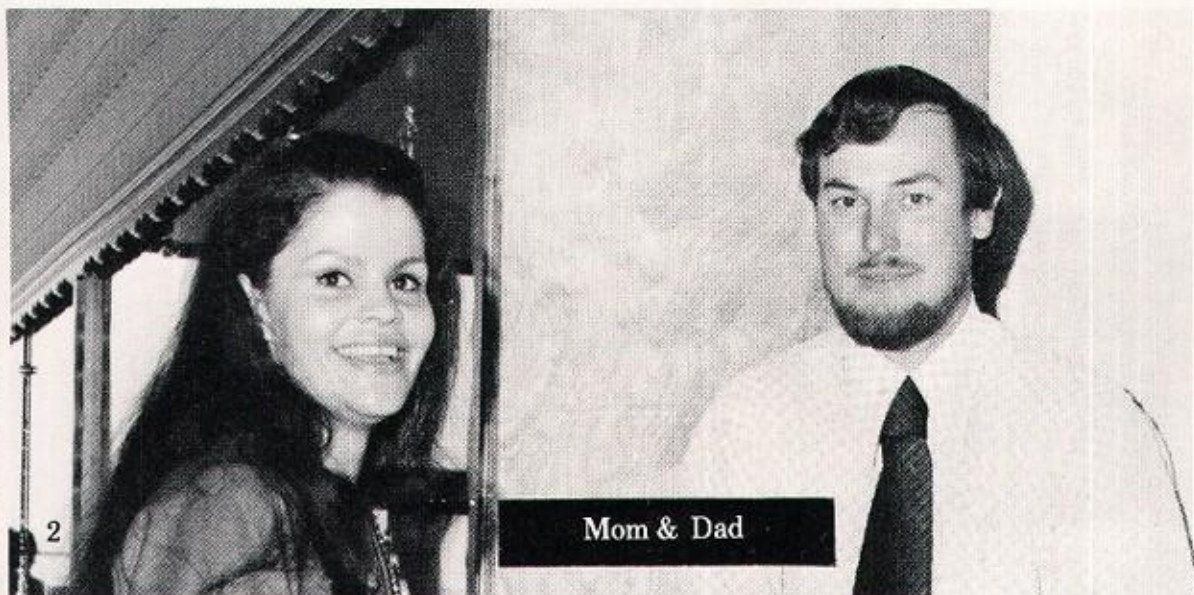

Student Council

student government

Most of the second semester was devoted to getting the freshmen and sophomores more involved in SC for when they have to form a new one at the new school. Work was also done on organizing student stores for both of the schools next year and improving on SC 73-74.

1. The success of West Mesa is safe in the hands of the officers of student council. Planning their next move are Rita Martinez, Larry Trujillo, Lawrance Bernabo, Leslie Murphy and Pearl Lindstrom. 2. Equally stalwart are the sponsors, Mrs. Julia Gabaldon and Mr. Ken Collier.

Spanish Club

'Bailando, vendiendo nos tiene ocupados' . . .

Los Conquistadores, Spanish club members, furthered their knowledge of their culture through books and movies which they financed by selling gum and having bake sales.

Because of the split schedule and the meetings being 5th period most of the members were seniors and juniors.

Mrs. Cecilia Salas and Mrs. Julie Gabaldon made it possible to have such an organized club.

1. Spanish Club members learn how to dance the polka at one of their meetings.

Keith (Duckster)

It has been a super weird year, and you haven't done a whole lot to rectify the situation! I'm signing here so you can remember how weird it was. Keith, you are a rare person and deserve a lot of credit for your accomplishments. I wish you well in whatever you decide to do and ask that you not change, in personality or beliefs.

God Bless Always,

LeAnn Dahlborth

Orchestra

The orchestra joined forces with the Chorus to present Christmas and Spring productions to large and appreciative audiences. In addition to individuals and groups of players participating in the Albuquerque Solo & Ensemble Festival, the orchestra gave concerts during evenings throughout the school year, played at the District VII Festival and held an area festival with students from John Adams and Taylor Middle Schools included.

Keith,
Well, I guess
these past 2 years have been
fun. I hope you
go off to college
and forget all the fun times we've had. I don't know what to say but
I've really enjoyed all the times even though I was kind of mean.

Keep singing for God and don't forget him. Oh well there's no more room so that's all.
Love, Jennifer

This has been a busy year for the members of Concert Choir. Participants and on-lookers at the Homecoming Assembly were entertained with songs by this group. On November 30, Concert Choir gave a Christmas performance at the All-City Concert. They also presented a Christmas program at West Mesa and took part in the drama department's production "Gift of the Magi."

Field trips included a day of Christmas caroling at Casa Angelica, Encino House, Encino Gardens, and Nazareth Hospital. In January they traveled to Pueblo, Colorado, to participate in the official opening of the Mozart Festival-1974.

April found them entertaining the public with a "Rock Cantata." An awards banquet was held in the spring, and the year ended with a dinner concert with the Mixed Chorus.

Janis Cox, Jennifer Campbell, Julie Zerbe, and Maurice Wright were chosen to represent WM in the ALL-State Chorus.

‘Folk music is a great experience’ . . .

Cheryl Gunther

Members of Mixed Chorus and the Folk Music class had their share of activities. This chorus also participated in the Christmas concert. Both groups performed in the play, “The Gift of the Magi,” and they went caroling with the Concert Choir.

In April the Folk Singers, together with other high schools in the city, held a guitar festival which proved to be very enjoyable. Mixed Chorus also took part in the music department’s awards banquet and dinner concert.

Keith
Well stick, Ho Ho!!
Keith (I said that once didn't I?) Really?
You're a very
precious brother in Christ and I praise God for
crossing our paths
Keep the faith baby!
(It can really get rough at times, especially at college (even hybrid)) You'll be continually
in our prayers.
Love you
in Christ.

The Mustang Marching Band with almost 300 performers was the largest high school band in the Albuquerque district.

One band was made up of seniors and juniors, another group was comprised of all sophomores, and there were two freshmen band classes. All competed in at least two out-of-school competitions this year.

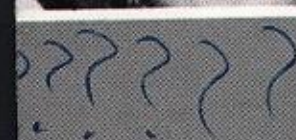

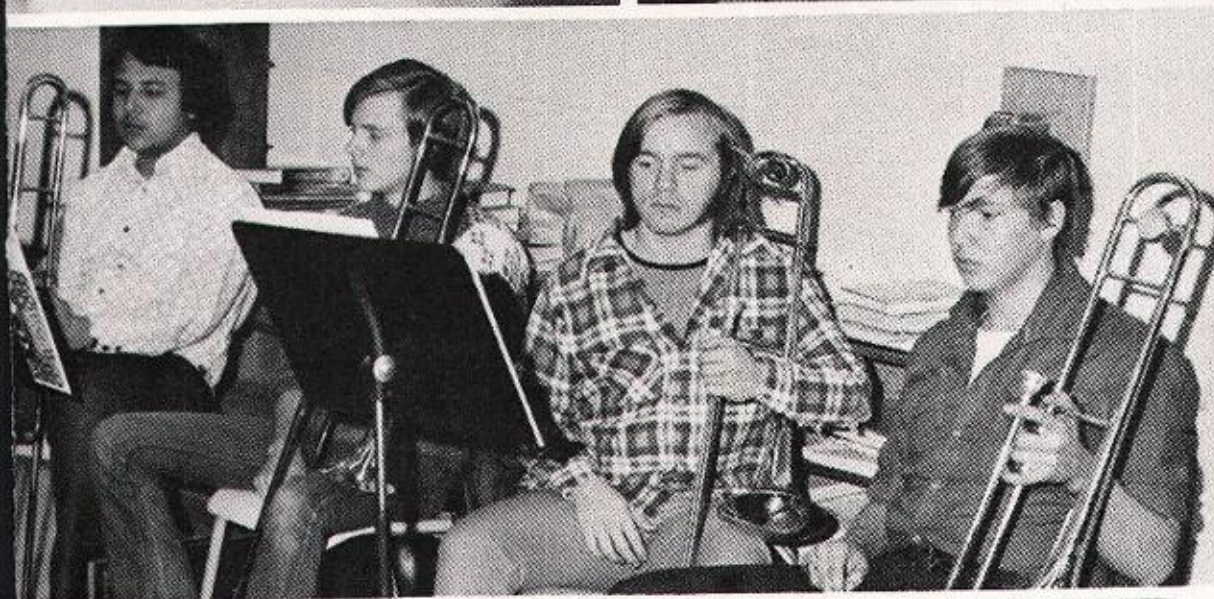

God be with you!

Fillies

‘We kick and kick and kick . . .’ B.L.

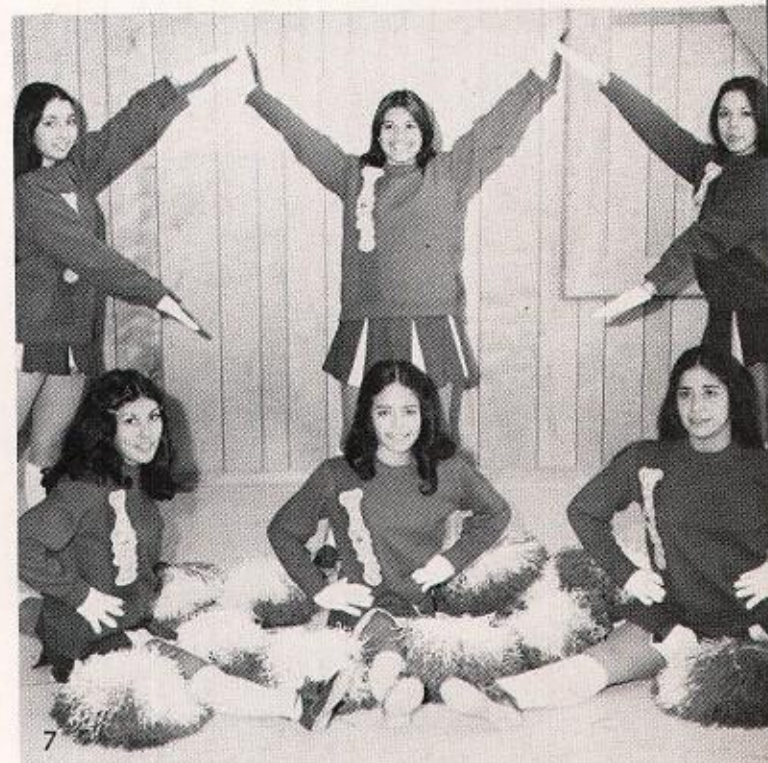

New Fillies started out the year with long practice during the summer. They had a few money-making projects such as bake sales, car washes, and a swimming party.

They continued the year with practice on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays. They performed at assemblies, games, and they also attended the wrestling matches.

There was a total of 26 girls, 9 seniors and 17 juniors. This has been a great year for this organization.

'It was great to represent WM' . . . D.M

Varsity attended the N.C.A. clinic in July. They came home with one outstanding, three excellent and one big blue superior ribbon.

They were very enthusiastic about cheering for all sports just as long as they represented West Mesa Mustangs. They spent long hours after school painting signs, advertising games, and assemblies. They also worked very hard in perfecting their cheers and stunts.

West Mesa had the privilege of having the first varsity cheerleader ever elected as Miss Fire Prevention of New Mexico. Margaret Serna represented them for the year of '73-'74.

2. Some cheerleaders have some time to play as Kim, Doris, and Maragret sit and make snowballs. 3. Maragret Serna displays her trophy for Miss Fire Prevention. 4. Varsity presents Queen Kim Easley with the traditional megaphone.

B-Team cheerleaders inspire much spirit

Promoting spirit at games and assemblies kept the spirited colts busy this year. The six girls helped to cheer on their teams to many victories at home and away!

To raise money to get the many extras needed, the B-team cheerleaders sold doughnuts during the morning session for the first semester. B-team cheerleaders were led by Doris Garcia.

FFA has been an organized club for 3½ years. Chapter meetings were held every month on the chapter level. District meetings were held twice during the year and the State Convention was held in June. The annual National Convention was in Kansas City.

In order to become an FFA member, a student must be enrolled in a vocational agriculture class, have a supervised farming or occupational experience program, meet qualifications for membership, and pay local, state, and national dues.

Speech Team

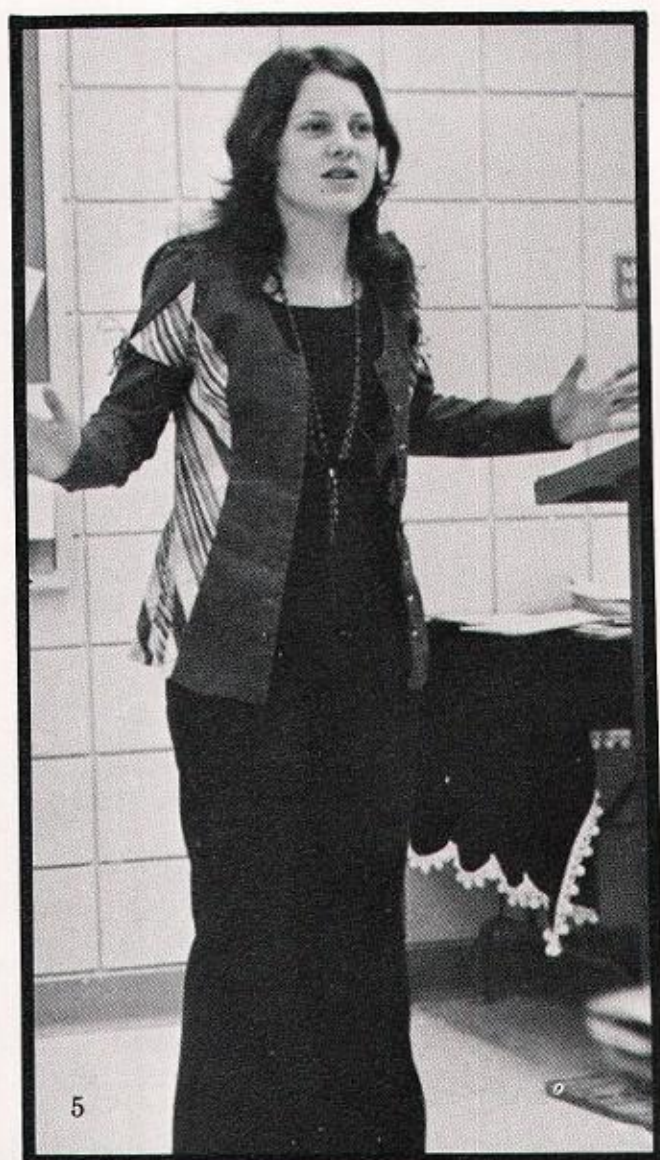

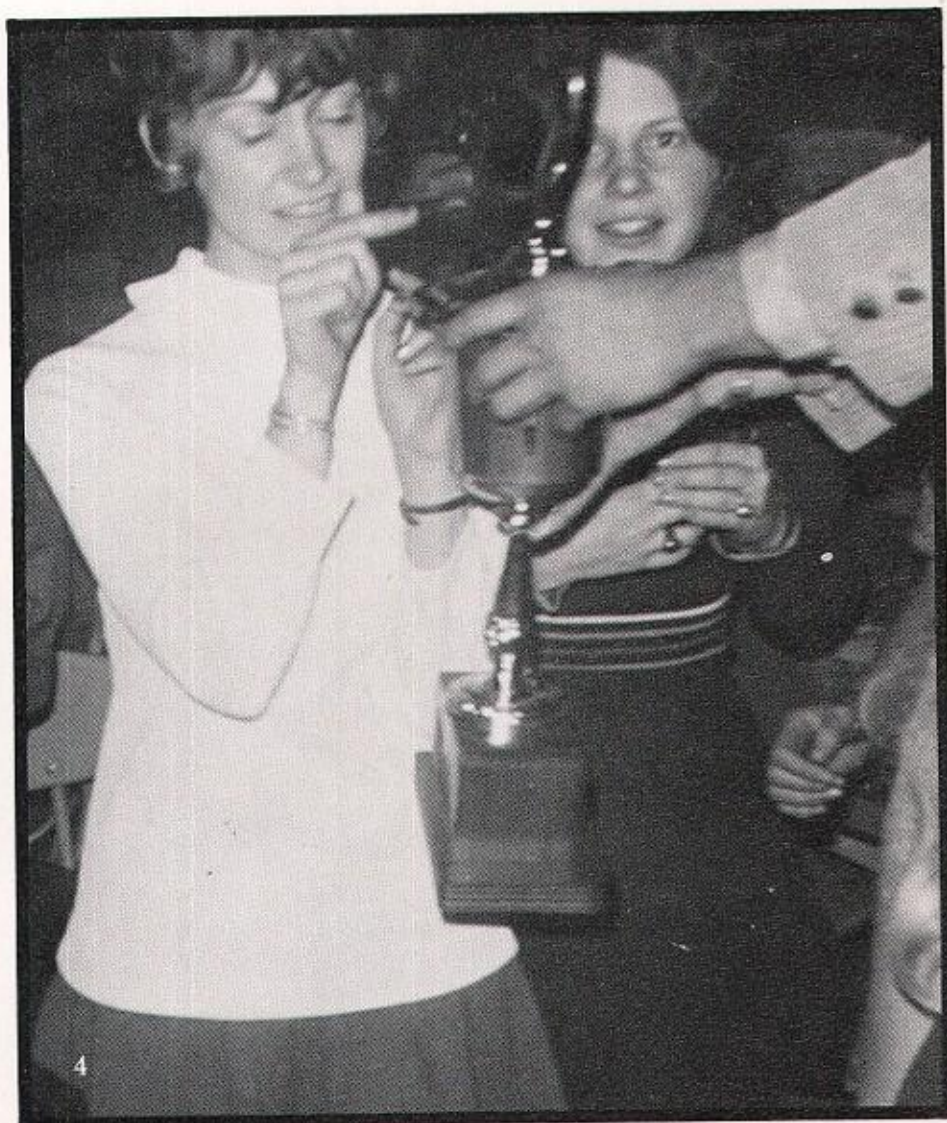

Short and dumb and skinny and ugly . . .

"Short and dumb and skinny and ugly, the Grinch from West Mesa goes walkin', and when she passes everybody she passes goes 'Hey, Mizz K.!'"

This song, sung to the tune of "The Girl from Ipanema" was heard in three states, as the Speech Team traveled, and traveled, and kept on traveling. Among the out-of-town tournaments were those at Los Alamos, Taos, Cortez, Denver, El Paso, Portales, and Farmington.

Miss K., as she is affectionately known by the team members—who are supposed to know how to speak, but somehow cannot say "Krahenbuhl"—has led the team to the distinction of being the best all-around team in the state. No less than two trophies were taken at each tournament, and more often the number was six or seven.

1. Getting the Speech team to stand still and keep quiet is quite a task. 2. Pat Elwell, Speech Team President, looks delighted to have all of his fellow officers: Jane Campbell, Laura Riggs, Susie McMath, and Debbie Wirth. 3. Speech Tournaments aren't always exciting, as Pat E. illustrates. Mrs. Krahenbuhl is vainly trying to concentrate on someone's speech as Greta Quezada, Sheila Davidson, and Mike Zerbe are pursuing their own interests. 4. The star of the City Speech Tournament was this lovely sweepstakes trophy being presented to Mrs. Krahenbuhl and Debbie Wirth. 5. Sometimes the situation does get serious in the Speech Room. Mrs. Krahenbuhl is examining Gwen Fejeran's oration.

Learning the how and why of government was what the Staters Club pursued this year. They helped supervise and carry out all school elections and also had an opportunity to sit in on a criminal court case.

Early in the summer, Staters learned about local, state, and national government at a week-long session sponsored by the American Legion. Club sponsors this year were Mr. Ken Rodriguez, Mrs. Jennison Allred, and Mrs. Margaret Seidel.

In addition to being the "Honorary Rope-Holders" for the basketball games, the members of this club had various other activities going on this school year.

At Christmas time, money was raised to buy clothes for three needy children at Kit Carson Elementary School.

The annual Donkey Basketball game was sponsored by the club for late winter, leaving those who attended with many laughs.

In the spring a Steak Fry was enjoyed for the club members, families and dates.

Students for Action

'You're never too old to learn' . . . Marie Fausett

This year, tutoring was the principal objective of Students for Action in Education, formerly known as the Future Teachers of America. Members tutored at various elementary schools, working two day a week with several children at a time. The club raised money in order to award a scholarship to one member at the end of the year. Scholarships were also re-issued to two former members on the basis of their college grade point averages. There was a state convention in the spring which most members attended. The year ended with an awards banquet.

In the beginning there was light but then the dimmer blew and there wasn't any. But the actors went on with their first major production anyway, "Take Her She's Mine" starring Dodie Chavez and guest star professional actor Don Hayes from Barn Dinner Theatre. Drama II class combined forces with the Music Department and put on a Christmas production with Jim Thomas, Allen Martin and Anthony Zamora as working technicians. Rudy Baca was the student director and did the choreography. Then it was off to UNM for the S.W. Drama Festival with the production "Live Spelled Backwards." WM returned with a $250 scholarship for Jane Campbell. Kathy Sandoval was an alternate for a scholarship and an honorable mention went to Ronnie Reisdorf. Two more festivals, a variety show and one more major production were worked on during second semester.

Distributive Education Club

'We've come a long way' ... Pat Elwell

Distributive Education Classes of America was very busy this past year. Various conferences and contests were held to compete in salesmanship and leadership. DECA held a Skating Party, a Christmas food drive, and Christmas tree sale to raise money to attend the conferences as well as to buy needed materials.

An Employer-Employee Banquet, a Parent-Orientation, Sweetheart Dance and the election of a Sweetheart highlighted the year.

Health Careers

'Training for hospital work' . . . M.A.

Health Occupations was a two year course preparing students to enter a career in the health field.

Juniors received intensive training in basic bedside skills and anatomy and physiology the first semester. Second semester was devoted to observation of various different health facilities in the community.

Seniors were in a cooperative on-the-job training program getting pay and high school credit for their services.

ART IS -

To work with the potter's wheel is like the reward that comes with the struggle. The process may, in fact, look simple but to throw a pot you must have patience. You wedge the clay to get all of the air bubbles out, and then you put the clay on the wheel and center it. You then penetrate the clay, and with your finger raise the walls to your command, until finally you reach the desired height. After that the pot dries, is fire glazed three times and then fired again. Voila, the finished pot!

Remember dear,
me. Julie Zerbe

Keith,
Well phant! One
we finally going to get rid of you! It's gonna be awful quiet without you in L.A. We enjoyed your friendship so much. You really are every. Stay the way you are. Be good.
God Bless you and keep you

Keith,
I'm glad you
finally talked to me about a really nice
out what are good shoes and you are. I wish you luck and love. Sharon

K.S. for you. Give me
the good at Rio Pando.
to see how far I can go to see you. Love yours
K.S. (77)

to a nice girl who I met in folk music Goodbye always. Kathy
Hujillo

Dear Keith,
It's been fun
knowing you.
You've been a great friend, when I needed one. Thanks
for understanding me.
You've been just great.
Hope you get all your wishes and dreams.
Love always,
Jacquie
Sheep

Keith,
I had fun working with you. This is good luck and hard fun
at college. Always,
Sandra

Keith
Good luck in life,
and remember, always keep singing. To our best baritone from
Silvest Herrera

Keith,
I have signed so
many of these things that I ran out things to say. So I'll just sign
name.

Keith,
Hey, it's been great knowing you these past two years. I wish you many years of happiness and love. I put my love into it. I hope you always love and peace.
Love,
J. Miller
